IAAF PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

MESSAGE DU PRESIDENT DE L'IAAF

I am very excited that the World Indoor Championships have returned to the Iberian peninsula after the editions of Seville 1991, Barcelona 1995 and Lisbon 2001. The Real Federación Española de Atletismo are experts in staging these events, as proved also by the European Indoor Championships here in Valencia in 1998 and again in Madrid just three years ago.

World Indoor titles are not easy to win. Anyone good enough to be a contender in Valencia will also be a contender for Olympic glory. The last time we had a World Indoor Championships in Olympic year – in 2004 – there were 11 individual winners who also ended the year with Olympic gold or silver. It's fair to say that anyone watching the action at the Palau Velódromo Luis Puig will be seeing several Beijing champions-to-be.

Of course, a World Indoor medal is a phenomenal achievement in itself and there is no disgrace if this happens to be the pinnacle of an athlete's career. Among the pages of past results in this book you will see the names of indoor specialists as well as others who have gone on to reach the highest level outdoors. I hope this book will remind you of some of the greatest moments in our sport – indoors or out – which have been all the more potent given the intimate setting of an indoor arena.

The superb members of the Association of Track and Field Statisticians are in danger of being taken for granted. Year after year they never fail to compile and organise the ever-complicated lists, records, and biographies we need to put the championship performances into context. The IAAF is forever grateful for their contribution.

Lamine Diack, November 2007

Je suis très heureux que les Championnats du Monde en salle retournent dans la péninsule ibérique après les brillantes éditions de Séville en 1991, de Barcelone en 1995 et de Lisbonne en 2001.

La Fédération royale espagnole est passée maître dans l'art d'accueillir les manifestations d'athlétisme. Elle l'a prouvé à maintes reprises et encore notamment lors des Championnats d'Europe en salle organisés à Valence, en 1998 et à Madrid, voilà trois ans.

Les titres de champion du monde en salle ne sont pas aisés à remporter. Tout athlète susceptible de remporter les épreuves de Valence sera un vainqueur potentiel à Pékin. La dernière fois que des Mondiaux en salle ont eu lieu une année olympique (2004) onze vainqueurs (en individuel) ont terminé la saison avec une médaille olympique (or ou argent). On peut donc affirmer sans grand risque que le public qui viendra admirer les athlètes au sein du stade vélodrome Luis Puig, a de grandes chances de découvrir les futurs héros de Pékin. Bien sûr, une médaille de champion du monde en salle est déjà une performance incroyable en soi. Un athlète est en droit d'être fier de cette récompense qui peut s'avérer être le sommet de sa carrière.

Parmi les pages qui regroupent les résultats passés, vous découvrirez le nom des athlètes spécialistes des compétitions en salle, mais également de ceux qui ont obtenu les meilleurs résultats en plein air. J'espère que cet ouvrage vous remémorera quelques-uns des meilleurs moments de notre sport, mais aussi de ceux qui ont été les plus marquants du fait de l'atmosphère intime et si particulière des championnats en salle.

Prenons garde de ne pas de considérer comme acquise l'aide si précieuse des membres de l'Association des Statisticiens d'Athlétisme (ATFS). Au fil des ans, ses statisticiens ne manquent jamais de compiler une liste de résultats toujours plus compliquée et les biographies dont nous avons grand besoin pour replacer les performances des Championnats dans leur contexte. L'IAAF leur est reconnaissante pour ce labeur de précision.

Athlete's Names

In this book, we have attempted to use the most understandable, recognisable and pronounceable versions of athlete's names, in accordance with the policy of the ATFS. In general, we strive to use the names the athletes actually want, which may well not agree with those given on entry forms and/or passports. For instance with Belarussian and Ukrainian names we have used generally Russian transliterations. So we have Andrey Kravchenko, not Andrei Krauchanka, and Sergey Bubka rather than Serhiy Bubka etc.

City Names

In keeping with ATFS policy, native spelling is used for the names of cities given in lists in this book. In text, the English (or French) version of the name is used.

Most Appearances:

Athletes having made the most appearances in the event or everyone with six or more

National Placings:

A table of placings by country in the first six of each final. Point scores are computed by giving six points for first place, five for second etc, down to one for sixth. Placings by the GDR and FRG are given in a single entry for Germany. Ties are denoted by the character "="

Please note that results from the 1985 World Indoor Games and the non-championship women's triple jump of 1991 and heptathlon, pentathlon and medley relays of 1993 are included in these statistics

Rule numbers are given in the event of disqualifications for the 1997 World Indoor Championships or later. These are:

39 – Doping violation
149 – Entry to championships on the grounds of invalid performances
162.7 – Two false starts
163.2 – Obstruction
163.3 – Running out of lane
170.8 – Outgoing runner in 4x400m relay begins running and/or breaks from lane too early

At the 1984 Olympic Games, Sam Graddy and Ben Johnson finished second and third behind Carl Lewis. In Paris, the Canadian reversed that order. Graddy got the better start, but Johnson – who had clocked 6.56 just before the Games – edged ahead to win by 0.01.

A shock elimination was that of 6.57 performer Mel Lattany (USA), who claimed he was distracted at the start of his heat.

Ben Johnson	CAN	DQ (6.41)

Johnson, now the world indoor record holder at 6.44, was clearly in superb form. He won his semi-final, easing up, in 6.49. There was drama before the start of the final. First, a twitch by McRae set the field off. Then Johnson got a brilliant and apparently valid start – only for the recall gun to be fired when he was halfway up the track.

While the 20,023 crowd booed, Johnson was penalised for a false start. After studying the reaction times, the judges changed their minds and blamed Haas. When at last there was a valid start, the muscular Canadian was again away blindingly fast. He won by a metre from McRae in a world record of 6.41, and was moving so quickly after the finish that he propelled himself into a somersault over the padded barrier on the edge of the running oval.

Johnson was unhurt but was not completely happy, either, estimating that he would have run 6.36 if he had not been recalled from that second start.

In June 1989, Johnson admitted for the first time that he had taken anabolic steroids regularly for six years before his disqualification at the 1988 Olympic Games. The IAAF Council subsequently stripped him of his world records and 1987 world title. McRae was thus promoted to world indoor champion and his time of 6.50 accorded world record status.

Simón became the favourite after the semi-finals, where he won his heat in a personal best of 6.54. The charismatic Cuban, only 1.60m tall, got the best start in the final and was a clear winner in another lifetime best. He proceeded to sprint back down the straight in celebration before running a lap of honour carrying a Cuban flag.

The second heat of the semi-finals produced one of the biggest mass finishes ever at this level – five men within the space of 0.01. One of the unlucky runners was Stanley Floyd, meaning that the United States were unrepresented in a World sprint final for the first time.

Johnson – making his return to major competition following a two-year suspension – stole the limelight when he stumbled and almost fell at the start of his heat.

The Canadian made the final as a fastest loser, by which time it was clear that the title would go to Cason or Christie. The American got the best start, leaving the much taller Christie little time to try to close the gap. Christie failed to catch Cason by a margin of just 0.007.

Surin, sixth in 1991, became Canada's first official World Champion after edging in front of Olympic sprint silver medallist Fredericks in the final 15m. The Haitian-born Canadian, who had clocked 6.45 earlier in the year, equalled the championship record of 6.50 in both heat and semi-final.

In a reference to Ben Johnson, who had subsequently failed another doping test, Surin said "The message I want to send is that some people think that an athlete can't be top without being on drugs but I am the guy saying now it is possible."

the world record at the US Championships ahead of Tim Harnden. Yet the United States still took gold and silver medals in Lisbon.

The three semi-final winners were Harnden, Montgomery and Aliu. In the 1997 championships, Aliu was disqualified from the semi-final after committing two false starts. In Lisbon, the same thing happened to him in the final to the Nigerian's disgust. The commotion took place in the lane to Harnden's left, but it did not seem to affect the American who started well and won easing up from Montgomery.

The revelation of the race was Mark Lewis-Francis, the 2000 World Junior Champion at 100m and still only 18. Drawn in the lane between the Americans, the British teenager won the bronze with a world junior indoor best. At 18 years 118 days, he became the youngest ever male medallist in the history of the championships starting in 1987.

Gatlin had been lauded as a great talent in the United States but had never raced outside of that country until the first round during the opening session in Birmingham. He quickly made an impact, staying unusually low with his head down for half of the race before striding smoothly away to win. Gatlin's compatriot Trammell went out in the first round with an injured right hamstring. The semi-finals were won by Gatlin and the two British entrants, Gardener and Lewis-Francis. Kim Collins of St Kitts appeared to struggle to reach the final but once there, he made the fastest start in lane two. Across the track in lane six, Gatlin was also away well and surged in the last 20m for a clear victory. Collins edged Gardener, who repeated his 1999 bronze.

Final (Mar 6)

1,	Jason Gardener	GBR	6.49	0.144
2,	Shawn Crawford	USA	6.52	0.158
3,	Yórgos Theodorides	GRE	6.54	0.139

7,	Simone Collio	ITA	6.60	0.142
8,	Niconnor Alexander	TRI	6.76	0.139

The two-time bronze medallist Gardener was favourite, in spite of a defeat in his last race before Budapest when he was left at the start thinking a false start would be called. Gatlin did not defend but his training partner Crawford had moved down from 200m (which he won in Lisbon) and was the fastest in the heats. In the semis Gardener was the more impressive and from lane 3 had much the best start and pick-up of the finalists. He was not caught, although Crawford (lane 6) closed slightly at the end despite swerving from one side of his lane to the other.

8,	Henry Vizcaino	CUB	6.84	0.153

Scott was the fastest entrant (6.52), and further enhanced his position as favourite with a semi-final win in 6.50 ahead of Fasuba. Other semi winners were local man Yepishin and hurdler Trammell, who had been fastest in the heats with 6.60. Scott led from the gun in the final, but was pressured all the way by the surprising Yepishin. Trammell, recovering from a stomach infection was a close third.

"I never dreamt that a silver medal was possible," said Yepishin, whose mother Yekaterina Podkopyeva was World Indoor Champion at 1500m in 1997.

The 2004 Champion Jason Gardener vacated the title, preferring to contest the Commonwealth Games (outdoors) in Melbourne later that month.

Indoor specialist Yevgenyev – the European Indoor Champion – just managed to hold on for victory from the fast-finishing junior Mafe, two lanes to his outside. The 18 year-old Briton had set Commonwealth bests in both semi-final and final.

Once the race started, the early leader was United States record holder Butler, but he faded to fifth at the finish as the ungainly Baptiste surged ahead of world record holder Marie-Rose.

Da Silva tried to run away from Mafe and Regis, who had taken gold and silver in the previous month's European Championships. The Brazilian (lane 5) was level with Regis (lane 4) on the last turn, but the powerfully-built Briton came off the bend the best to win with the fourth-quickest time in history. Mafe was an isolated third, then was promoted to second after da Silva was disqualified for running into Regis's lane on that final curve.

After four faulty or false starts, Christie (lane 5) sped off the quickest in a bid to go one better than his 60m silver. Antonov (lane 4) had finished impressively in the earlier rounds and did so again, passing Christie halfway down the homestraight. Some observers – including the coach of European outdoor champion Geir Moen – were displeased with the track which had flat, sharp bends. It was Moen, however, who coped best. In the semi-finals he scored a psychologically important win over former champion Regis, who withdrew from the final injured. The Norwegian was an easy winner of the final from the outside lane. Keitel won his country's first ever IAAF medal, a bronze.

Among the absentees were Linford Christie and Frankie Fredericks. Three weeks earlier in Liévin, both had ran faster than the previous world record with times of 20.25 and 20.26.

Defending Champion Moen did not even start his semi-final, withdrawing after having been assigned lane 3 in a race where he needed to beat Boldon or the experienced Little to reach the final. Boldon, the double Olympic bronze medallist, won in a championship record of 20.41 to establish himself as favourite for the gold.

In the final García was drawn in lane 4, inside Boldon and Little. Boldon was slightly ahead on the final bend before García closed suddenly on his inside. On Boldon's outside, Little was also in close contention. The American edged in front and appeared to be heading for victory when Boldon dramatically pulled up and fell over with a hamstring injury. The Trinidadian was booed, somewhat unsympathetically, by the crowd, as he was surrounded by helpers. Meanwhile he had lost his Championship record to Little, who concluded "I know how to take the bends."

Fredericks (lane 6) was never headed as he sped to the finish in 20.10, second only to his world indoor record of 19.92. In the last 50m Thompson (lane 5) closed slightly, and his time of 20.26 moved him to third place on the world all-time list. In third place, defending champion Little collected his third world indoor 200m bronze medal.

The results showed how significant lane draws are in indoor 200m races. The runner drawn in lane 6 was first, lane 5 was second, lane 4 third etc. Poor Griffin, the world number one before Maebashi, drew lane one – just as he had in Paris 1997 – and wound up sixth.

Crawford had placed only third in the US Championships but came into the team when the man who won that race, Coby Miller, broke a bone in his left leg. The other American, 1997 winner Kevin Little, pulled a muscle after winning his semi-final. Therefore only five men started the final, with the favourite being European Indoor Champion Christian Malcolm (lane 5). However, Crawford (lane 4) entered the straight three metres ahead. Malcolm closed a little but the American was never threatened.

Lanes 1 and 2 were not used for the preliminary rounds, but they were in the final, where prize money was at stake for six places.

Defending Champion Crawford crossed the line first in his semi in 20.50 but was disqualified for running inside his lane, as was his teammate Williams after a blatant transgression in the third semi. These were two out of 25 such disqualifications in Birmingham.

The United States loss was Britain's gain, for Devonish emerged as favourite and drew the favourable lane six in the final. That race was marred by the disqualification of the British number two, Condon. He false started twice yet disputed the judge's decision and insisted on racing under protest. Condon placed fifth but his disqualification held. Meanwhile, Devonish raced clear of Batangdon, who won his country's first medal at these championships.

The IAAF Council Meeting at Berlin in November 2003 decided that from 2006 this event would be removed from the programme of the World Indoor Championships because "it was clear that top performances depended solely on the lane draw." So Budapest 2004 would see the final world champions at the one-lap event.

The 1999 winner Fredericks became a victim of poor lane draws, he was assigned lane 4 in his heat where Ernst was able to win comfortably from lane 6. The Namibian qualified, but as a second-placer, he missed out on the chance for lane 5 or 6 in the semi-finals. In fact he was given lane 2 and did not start the race. In the final, Unger (lane 4) led until the advantage of the outer lanes came into play. Birmingham bronze medallist Demeritte made the most of the outside draw to defeat the favourite Wissman.

The East German teenager Schönlebe produced the best performance of the 1985 Games by substantially improving the world best of 45.79. Drawn in lane four, the reigning European Junior Champion raced through 200m in 21.48 to lead by five metres from Bennett. The Briton closed slightly at the end and became only the fourth man to crack 46 seconds indoors.

"Actually, I got excited and went out too fast," admitted Schönlebe. "But I was able to hold on, to my surprise – and pleasure."

McKay defended his title in decisive fashion, setting a championship record of 45.59 ahead of Morris, who had just missed a medal two years earlier.

The winner's time was also a US record. "I wanted a world record," he said, "but I couldn't do it because of all the pushing."

Morris took control of the race with a 21.80 first half and had just enough left in the second lap to hold off Kitur. A relieved Cornet made up two places in the last lap to take the bronze.

It was a pity that several potential winners, including Danny Everett, Michael Johnson and Thomas Schönlebe, chose not to compete for various reasons.

Hall moved in front only in the last 20m. "I was surprised when [he] took the lead," said Hall, "but I showed a lot of poise and character. We just had to see who was the stronger."

After silvers in Toronto and Barcelona, Bada finally won a world indoor gold, defeating one of the major favourites in Paris in the process. Olympic relay silver medallist Baulch had been unbeaten all winter and seemed to be heading for another victory after a 21.30 first lap which gave him a healthy lead. Bada followed and struck at the start of the homestraight. He stole past Baulch to set a new African indoor record. Karube also finished fast to take Japan's first ever individual world indoor medal.

Baulch (lane 5) was again the favourite, but he looked to be in trouble at the break when the men either side of him were a few strides ahead. Then within 50m, the Welshman produced a breathtaking piece of acceleration to emerge in front at exactly 200m (21.13).

Despite the fast pace, Baulch held his form and into the straight it was clear he would not be caught. There was a close battle for the minor medals. McIntosh led off the last bend, but he was passed first by Campbell then, with his last stride, Cárdenas. All three fell over as they dipped for the line.

Jamie Baulch did not defend but the title stayed in British hands through Caines. The 21 year-old led at halfway in 21.41 from McFarlane and Campbell. The Jamaican and American were close behind before Caines surged again on the final bend. Campbell made one final effort, overhauling McFarlane and almost catching Caines. He therefore repeated his Maebashi silver.

"I had two things to do today," reflected the winner. "Get to the bell first, and then work, work, work!"

This event provided the clash of the championship: Defending Champion Caines, a local favourite, versus the United States Champion Washington. Their rivalry was evident from the first heat, where they were drawn together. Both wanted to get to the halfway point in first place and Washington prevailed by running a scorching

20.87 first half, with Caines alongside. The tall American impeded Caines twice on the second lap, but the Briton came through to win in an extravagant 45.85, far faster than his winning time in Lisbon. Though the British runner complained about Washington's actions, his team decided not to make an official protest. The two met again in the semis, when Caines followed Washington (21.45 at 200m) before edging past to win.

In the final, Caines (lane 5) again allowed Washington (lane 4) to race ahead at halfway in 21.12, following close behind and attacking down the final straight. He closed the gap, but the relaxed Washington stayed in front.

For the bronze medal, former champion Baulch and Irishman McKee crossed the line together. At first they were listed as equal third in 45.99, then Baulch was given third and McKee fourth. That's how it stayed for the medal ceremony, but a protest on behalf of McKee was upheld and he was awarded a shared bronze medal in a separate presentation at the end of the championships.

Disqualified for a lane violation was US number one LaShawn Merritt. Francique edged Molefe 45.86 to 46.02 in the semi-finals, and then the Grenadan surged to the front in the final, passing 200m in 21.11, just ahead of Chris Brown. Molefe improved from fourth to second in the last 100m, but for the fifth consecutive time the leader at 200m went on to be the victor.

4,	Sofiene Labidi	TUN	46.48
5,	Milton Campbell	USA	46.74
6,	Joe Mendel	USA	47.34

Francique – was disqualified from the heats in 2003 – ran comfortably from lane 5 to lead at the bell in 21.57 with Clarke and Kikaya following. On the last backstraight, Clarke edged in front, but not by enough to be able to overtake the Grenadian athlete on the bend. In the final straight the Jamaican moved wide again and closed on Francique, but like Caines versus Washington in 2003, the man who led at the bell held on for the gold. So Grenada gained their first World Champion.

6,	Tonino Viali	ITA	1:50.85

Dragoescu led at halfway in 53.05, before a decisive burst along the final backstraight carried Trabado into a winning lead. The Spaniard had employed precisely the same tactic to win the 1983 European Indoor title.

The Romanian ended up without a medal, having been outkicked by Britain's Ikem Billy.

First round (First 2 & 2 fastest to final) (Jan 18)

Kwizéra and Redwine (52.71 at 400m) were the early leaders, both shadowed by Barbosa. Redwine still led at 600m (80.48), before being overtaken by the Brazilian at the start of the finishing straight.

The winner apparently needed to be persuaded to run by the Brazilian Government.

1,	Paul Ereng	KEN	1:44.84WR
2,	José Luiz Barbosa	BRA	1:45.55
3,	Tonino Viali	ITA	1:46.95
4,	Stanley Redwine	USA	1:47.54
5,	Ray Brown	USA	1:47.93
6,	Ikem Billy	GBR	1:48.97

With one of the most dazzling finishes ever to a championship middle distance race, Ereng not only broke the world record but became the star performer of the second World Indoor Championships. The Olympic Champion was given special permission to compete after the rest of the Kenyan team withdrew from Budapest at the last minute due to a reported lack of funds. As a result, he ran in a vest from his American College, the University of Virginia.

Ereng's main opponent was Barbosa, the defending Champion, who unlike 1987 had prepared thoroughly for the meeting. The Brazilian had clocked 1:45.73 just before the championships and won his semi from Ereng in a championship record of 1:46.79.

In the final, Brown set a very fast pace of 24.58 and 50.83. Barbosa was a close second with Ereng 12m back in fifth place at halfway. Brown succumbed to Barbosa after the bell (77.98), while Ereng was 10m behind and seemingly out of the hunt. The Kenyan suddenly tore down the backstraight and quickly passed three men by the last bend. He caught Barbosa with 80m remaining. The Brazilian responded but could not hold Ereng in the straight. The Kenyan crossed the line 0.07 below Sebastian Coe's world record, having run the final two 200m segments in 26.6 and 25.7. Barbosa's time was the third-quickest in history.

At the banquet held on the final evening of the championships, Ereng took another award – he was named as the most handsome male athlete of the championships.

Ereng retained his title in less spectacular but more controversial circumstances than 1989. He almost went out in the semi-finals, having stumbled at the bell, losing several places in the process.

In the final, another Kenyan, William Tanui, went into the lead while Ereng held back to avoid trouble. Redwine took over by 400m (54.00), but he and the rest of the field were left when both Tanui and Ereng launched their victory bids at the same time in the final lap. Tanui managed to stay in front and crossed the line first in 1:46.94. He was, however, disqualified for breaking from his lane too early at the start of the race.

Poor Redwine found himself fourth for the third consecutive world indoor championships.

5,	Freddie Williams	CAN	1:51.26

McKean ran from the front, passing 200m in 24.86 and 400m in 51.59. His tactics were designed to avoid the sort of trouble the Scot had found himself in previous championship races. He was proved right when Nkazamyampi, Barbosa and Motchebon collided in his wake just after the bell. The Brazilian – contesting his third world indoor final – came off the worst and failed to finish.

Meanwhile, McKean continued to move away for an untroubled victory. But there was embarrassment at the medal ceremony, when the Briton missed the main presentation after failing to find a quick route from the press concourse, from where he was making calls to home.

Terrelonge had been disqualified from his semi-final for obstruction and was not even on the original start list for the final. Late on the night before the final, an appeal led to his re-instatement.

In the final, Tengelei appeared to be setting the pace in order to help his team-mate, Koech, who clocked 1:43.17 outdoors in 1994. Tengelei passed 200m in 25.2 and 400 in 53.4 before falling back. It was Terrelonge, not Koech, who then made the decisive move. The Jamaican – a student and assistant track coach at Lincoln University – had a 5m lead at 600m and held off Koech to win.

Kipketer missed the Olympic Games because Kenya had refused to give clearance for him to run for his new country, Denmark. Nevertheless he was the obvious world number one at 800m in 1996, and his first indoor appearance of the winter was eagerly awaited.

The smooth-striding Dane quickly got clear of the small field in his heat after a 24.96 opening 200m. At 400m (50.77) there were murmurs of recognition of a world record pace. By 600m (77.23), something special was clearly on the cards. Kipketer crossed the finish line in new world record figures of 1:43.96 and become the first athlete to take the $50,000 award for a world record at a world indoor championship. He did not appear to be out of breath, and did not pause to recover. Instead, he smiled broadly and soaked in the acclaim of the crowd.

“It was not my intention to demolish the field or the record,” he said. Why did he not save the record for the final? “It is better to think about one thing at a time. In the final I must think about becoming World Champion and not about breaking records.”

However, after gliding through his semi-final, the Dane did go even faster in the final, 1:42.67 (24.22, 50.22, 76.49). “The decision to go for a second record came during the warm-up,” he conceded.

Not surprisingly, the other finalists were effectively in a separate race which was won by Haïda, who was a distant last at halfway.

The race started more slowly than the Maebashi women's 800m final. The three principals – Kipketer, Motchebon and Botha – crossed the 200m marker abreast in 27.11. The German then took up the running, clocking 53.70 at 400m. It was a surprise to see Kipketer fall back after this point. At 600m (Motchebon 1:19.48), he was 4m in arrears.

Then at the start of the final lap, the world record holder started to kick. Botha was shoulder-to-shoulder with Motchebon around the final bend before moving clear. Meanwhile Kipketer was closing rapidly and passed the flagging German. Could he catch Botha in time? No, although his dip brought him to within 0.02 of the South African, who crossed the line upright in 1:45.47.

Bucher raced through 200m in 25.38 and 400m in 51.48. By this point, he was 10m up, but most eyes were on the 19 year-old Borzakovskiy. The Russian was well-known for his tactic of holding back then producing spectacular finishes. He moved into second place on the third lap, then swept past Bucher on the final backstraight as if he was running a 400m race. He went on to win by almost 20m. At 19 years 333 days, Borzakovskiy was one of the youngest-ever World Indoor Champions. A fast-finishing Botha piped Bucher for the silver.

After recovering from injury and illness, Kipketer had made a fine comeback in 2002 to regain his status as world number one. He was favourite to regain his title and tracked Bungei who led with splits of 25.79, 52.93 and 79.78. The Dane moved ahead after the bell and appeared to be gliding to victory when it became clear that Krummenacker would not be dropped. The American sprinted past in the final straight, having run the last lap in 25.8 compared with Kipketer's 26.0. This was the first United States victory in any IAAF World Championship 800m.

Mulaudzi then overtook the Brazilian while Ramzi – who qualified for the final by less than one hundredth – came from far back to nip past dos Santos for the silver. O'Sullivan, who had just lowered the world record to 3:35.6, was untroubled by the pace of 58.32 at 400m and 1:56.75 at 800m set by Maree. The Irishman followed the American until the bell, where he ran away to victory with a final lap in 26.83. Morceli was overwhelming favourite, having set a world record of 3:34.16 on the same track 10 days earlier. Cacho tried to turn things to his advantage by setting a very slow pace, 33.64 for the first 200m, but Morceli took over before the 400m point and had strung out the field at 800m (2:06.54). The Algerian brushed aside challenges from Atkinson and Cacho in the last 500m before going on to win.

Defending Champion O'Sullivan finished strongly but just fell short of the medals this time.

The slow early pace was the work of Damian (400m: 63.59, 800m: 2:06.22) and Burke (1000m: 2:36.16). The field played into the hands of fast-finishing O'Sullivan, who went ahead in the last 300m and took his third title with a last lap of 26.14.

"I thought three would be too much to ask," said O'Sullivan of his third world indoor gold. "It was like playing poker out there and I guess you could say I ended with a royal flush as it was slow and tactical."

The big favourite was Olympic Champion Fermín Cacho, and the race looked to be going his way after a slow 65.9 first 400m. On the third lap, El Guerrouj went to the front and speeded up to pass 800m in 2:06.4. The young Moroccan gradually raised the pace with laps of 29.3 and 28.0. Cacho was at El Guerrouj's shoulder at the bell, but surprisingly faded on the final circuit, which the Moroccan covered in 27.3 to win. Consolation for Spain came when Cañellas took the silver.

Tanui made this race fast. He towed the field through 400m in 56.71 and 800m in 1:54.20. Gebrselassie and Rotich followed. With two laps to go, Rotich shot ahead (1200m: 2:52.58). Gebrselassie again settled in behind the Kenyan leader, but Rotich was sprinting hard and it looked as if the Ethiopian might have to settle for silver.

As the two leaders turned into the finishing straight for the final time, Gebrselassie swung wide to make his final effort. He slowly closed and caught Rotich six metres from the finish. The Ethiopian's last lap took 27.0 and last 100m 13.4. "He is from another galaxy," said bronze medallist Diaz.

This event was probably the high point of the Lisbon championships, for it not only provided a home winner but also a terrific finish. The early pace was even slower than the women's heats earlier in the day, and was actually booed by the crowd. The first 400m took 70.66, but then Olympic Champion Noah Ngeny stretched out the field. Estévez and Silva latched on to the Kenyan, then Estévez suddenly bolted ahead before the bell. Ngeny was dropped, but to the delight of the crowd, Silva stayed near. The Portuguese swung wide and edged past Estévez in the straight for a wildly-acclaimed victory. His final lap had been covered in 25.7 compared with 26.10 for Estévez.

The start was slow with Zadorozhniy leading at 400m in 64.12 and 800m in 2:06.50. Lagat then Chirchir injected some pace, with Maazouzi shadowing each Kenyan before slipping ahead at the bell. Pursued by the Kenyan pair, Maazouzi held on throughout the last lap, though Lagat closed up in the straight and Hachlaf finished faster than anyone to snatch the bronze from Chirchir. At 33 years 151 days, the winner became the oldest ever individual male world indoor champion. He ran the last lap in 27.30. Silva, a memorable champion two years earlier, went out in the heats after easing up at the finish.

For 800m the pace was slower than the Budapest women's 1500m final, with Korir reaching 800m in only 2:15.52. The Kenyan, who reached the final as a fastest loser, then stepped up the pace with a 58.22 third 400m, followed by a 13.05 100m section to the bell. Tracked by Heshko and East, Korir then covered the first half of the last lap in a scorching 12.64. The event had developed into a 300m race and though Heshko closed in he couldn't quite get in front by the bell. Korir's last lap was covered in 25.52. East held third place in sight of the finish but as Rotich challenged the Briton drifted out from lane 1 to lane 5. Was he deliberately trying to block the Kenyan? The judges decided yes and East was disqualified.

With two clockings in the 3:34 region, Komen was the only man present to have run quicker than 3:38 in the 2006 season. After controlling the fastest heat from the front, Komen again led the final from the gun,

6, Pascal Thiébaum	FRA	7:47.51

8, Mattias Ntawulikura	RWA	7:48.92
9, Jacinto Navarrete	COL	7:49.46; 10, Rob de Brouwer	NED	7:51.69

One of the highest quality entries of the meeting set six national records in the heats. There were six more in the final thanks to the fast pace set by de Brouwer and Ntawulikura. The favourite, 33 year-old Hammou Boutayeb, took over in front and led from O'Mara – the 1987 Champion – and González at 2000m (5:13.48).

Boutayeb's pace soon dropped everyone but O'Mara, who went to the front himself with two laps to go. After 50m of the final lap, O'Mara pulled clear so easily that he allowed himself to celebrate on the final bend. Yet his winning time was the fourth-quietest in history.

Vénuste Niyongabo would have been the big favourite, having easily beaten the world record holder Moses Kiptanui two weeks earlier in Birmingham. Unfortunately, the Burundian was mistakenly prevented from entering Spain. He became separated from his agent at the airport and, lacking the necessary papers, was flown back to his Italian base.

When the authorities realised what had happened, Niyongabo was given the opportunity to return but declined.

Di Napoli defended his title from the front. He reached halfway in 4:01.7 then speeded up. Jiménez made a late challenge but the Italian, who frequently looked up at the video scoreboard, was always in control.

Gebrselassie allowed Lahssini to take the initial lead before moving to the front just before the first kilometre (2:33.94). By halfway the Ethiopian was comfortably clear, having clocked around 57.9 for the third 400m segment. It was a measure of Gebrselassie's dominance that Kiptanui, himself a former world record holder, quickly lost touch.

Gebrselassie's second kilometre took just 2:26.06; a new world record looked possible until it became clear that the unven pace had taken its toll. The leader slowed somewhat in the final 600m, his last lap taking 32.20. His final time was the third-best ever.

Once it was confirmed that defending champion Gebrselassie would later contest the 1500m in Maebashi, it was unlikely that he would want a super-fast pace ... nor did anyone else.

Bitok led at 2000m (5:26.85), at which point the shuffling of the slow-moving pack suddenly left Gebrselassie boxed. He fell back to ninth pace during the lap between 2000m and 2200m, but he found his way back to the front after Di Napoli picked up the pace with three laps remaining. Gebrselassie hit the front just before two laps to go, followed by Wolde, Bitok and Di Napoli. The younger Ethiopian stayed in touch, and for a moment down the last backstraight looked as if he might even challenge Gebrselassie. Instead, he faded slightly and allowed Bitok to come through and repeat his 1997 silver. The last 400m took 55.2, with a 27.2 last lap.

Then he appeared to deliberately slow, allowing Mourhit and García to close up. Any victory hopes those two had vanished when the Moroccan surged again in the final lap. Haile Gebrselassie won a record 11th individual IAAF world gold with a display of his trademark kick in the last 300m. The Moroccans Goumri and Gharib traded the lead in the first two kilometres (2:35.62 and 5:14.87). Then García, who had recently lowered the European record to 7:32.98, made his move. He ran the section from 2000m to 2400m in 61.6 and continued to accelerate, yet was easily reeled in by Gebrselassie, who ran the last 400m in 54.9 to García's 56.6.

With three laps to go, Lagat, Geneti, Silva and Jimenez streamed past the Australian with the Kenyan winding up the pace. At the bell the Lisbon 1500m winner Silva tried to get in front but was held off by Lagat who won with a 26.63 last lap and a 3:38.5 second half. "It was challenging in my mind," said Lagat, "because I knew he [Silva] was close and could pass me at any time."

With 2005 World Champions Shaheen (steeplechase), and Bekele (10,000m), as well as Kipchoge, winner in 2003 over 5000m, this was the most talent-loaded event of the meeting. Cragg led to halfway in the final (4:02.5) without putting any strain on the leading contenders. The tempo changed sharply as Bekele surged into the lead with the next 100m in 14.6. Bekele and Kipchoge shared the pace over the next three laps, covered in 2:55.8, before the Ethiopian zipped away on the last lap of 26.45 to finish in 7:39.32. Bekele's second 1500m had taken just 3:36.5, and the final 1000m was covered in 2:23.33. Shaheen, in only his second indoor race passed Kipchoge at the bell. Said the winner: "indoors is like a fun run for me."

- Greg Foster USA DQ

The quality of this event was evident from Foster's championship record 7.46 in the heats. In the final, the American was drawn to the immediate right of McKoy, who had once shared the world record with Foster.

After a false start by Campbell, McKoy got away the quickest and built up a clear lead. Meanwhile, Foster hit the second and third hurdles, lost balance, and collided with McKoy. In a spectacular fall, both crashed to the ground, entangled with McKoy's fourth hurdle. This left Campbell as a comfortable winner.

Foster was disqualified after the incident and McKoy declared a non-finisher. The Canadian revealed that he and Foster usually bumped each other accidentally when drawn together as they were in the final, because the American has a left leg lead to the Canadian's right.

"Those things happen," said McKoy. "I don't blame Greg at all. It wasn't his fault he lost his balance. The hurdles is a dangerous event. When you clip a hurdle at that speed there's nothing you can do."

Foster said "All I do remember is that I did run into Mark's lane."

Four years after Indianapolis, Foster and McKoy clashed again, though this time Foster was drawn to the left of the Canadian. Just like 1987, McKoy got the best start in the final. Foster, who set a 1991 world best of 7.44 in the semis, closed the gap. He, McKoy and Kazanov hurdled the final flight level. The 32 year-old Foster had the best run-in, while Kazanov also got the better of the fading McKoy.

American had his own version of a dip, twisting to his right and thrusting out his fist, which hit the photo-finish beam in 7.35.

"I thought I won by at least half an arm," said Torian. However, it is the torso which counts, and the film showed that Jackson's crossed the line first. The United States Team officials requested a special viewing of the photograph and were eventually satisfied with the result.

The Olympic silver medallist Trammell won, but not as easily as had been expected. He started well and seemed to be heading for a clear victory, only to lose ground to the field at the last two barriers. Oljijar in particular was poised to make a serious challenge on the run-in, but fell over the final hurdle. In the confusion, Trammell – who was suffering from food poisoning – wasn't immediately sure he had won.

This event was emotionally charged as it marked the retirement at age 37 of Colin Jackson, the champion in 1999 and world record holder since 1994. Even without the injured Terrance Trammell (7.42 in 2003), this was the toughest event of the championships. The final line-up included the reigning Olympic, World, African, Asian, European and Commonwealth Champions.

Johnson, the winner in 1995, was only fourth in his semi-final and drew lane seven in the final. Obviously he saved his best for the very final race of the weekend, for he went on to win gold. Jackson finished fifth in his final race, but that didn't matter to the crowd who immediately gave the Welshman a standing ovation.

Defending Champion Johnson didn't impress in the preliminaries and only placed third in his semi-final. But hang on, didn't he do the same sort of thing in Birmingham 2003 before winning commandingly in the final? To no-one's surprise Johnson repeated his tactic in Budapest to great effect, taking the gold in an American record-equalling 7.36. Liu did one better than in 2003 for the silver with Wignall pipping Oljijar for the bronze. In the first round the US number two Ross fell heavily and broke his wrist.

A six-hour contest of the highest class in which Dalton Grant's Commonwealth record of 2.35 was insufficient for a medal. Mögenburg and Sjöberg also cleared that height and were ahead of the Briton on countback. None of those three made it at 2.37 whereas world outdoor record holder Sotomayor did, equalling his indoor best.

Mögenburg took his last attempt at 2.39 but failed, leaving Sotomayor to clear a world indoor record 2.43, the same height as the world record outdoors.

Conway not only won the title but, at 1.83, became the shortest ever man to leap 2.40. Of the seven men in at 2.34, five of these, including defending champion Sotomayor, failed. This left Conway and Partyka to contest the gold. Both went over 2.37, but whereas the Pole brushed the bar heavily, the American had a little to spare. Only Conway went higher, making 2.40 on his second try.

The American went on to take three attempts at 2.44, the last of which closed the second world indoor championships.

Just as in the World Indoor Games eight years earlier, Sotomayor and Sjöberg duelled for the gold and silver. Those two plus the two Britons, Smith and Grant, went for 2.39. All failed their first attempt. The Swede succeeded on his second try. Grant had two more failures at 2.39 to finish equal fourth. Sotomayor and Smith opted for 2.41. The Briton went out but the Cuban made it with his last try. It was enough to win as Sjöberg failed at the same height. "It was the best competition ever," said the Swede. "I was proud to be part of it."

Sotomayor needed only four jumps – first-time clearances at 2.24, 2.32, 2.35 and 2.38 – to secure his third world title. He went on to attempt a world record of 2.44 and closed the championships by coming very near on his last try. Papakóstas also excelled. Having won the silver at 2.35 and failed once at 2.38, he made two respectable attempts at 2.41. His was Greece's first world indoor medal.

The qualifying round had been marred by a nasty-looking fall by the Lebanese entrant, Jean-Claude Rabbath, who landed in a gap between the bed and the uprights. After a worrying delay, Rabbath was declared okay.

Sotomayor showed that he was still the world's number one 10 years after his first world indoor title. He was one of four men successful the first time at 2.30. At 2.33 the Cuban again cleared the first time to maintain his perfect record. Defending champion Austin made it on his second while new Russian star Voronin succeeded with his third try. At 2.36 both Voronin and Sotomayor went clear on their first try, the Cuban with a better clearance. Austin failed once, passed, then failed twice at 2.38, knocking down both the crossbar and an upright. Voronin, behind Sotomayor on countback, also went out at 2.38. The Cuban passed 2.38 before making one attempt at 2.40.

Like all the Maebashi field events, this was a straight final. The IAAF wished to cut qualifying rounds in order to shorten the overall programme of events, so field event qualifying standards had been set correspondingly high.

Sotomayor cleared only one height, 2.25, and so failed in his bid for a seventh medal in his eighth appearance. Four men cleared 2.29 but only one could go higher. Holm, just 1.81 tall, cleared 2.32 the second time to claim his first major championship medal. Following on from Kajsa Bergqvist's win the previous day, Sweden therefore won both high jump titles in Lisbon.

Nine men were in at 2.30, and of these just Holm made it first time. At 2.33 only the Swede and European outdoor Champion Rybakov went clear. Jumping first of the two at 2.35, Holm went over on his second try. The Russian, at 1.98 some 17cm taller than the Swede, failed twice before a last-ditch attempt at 2.37. He failed, so Holm retained his title and went on to try for 2.40.

Nine men leapt 2.27 to qualify, but only two of those were to scale 2.29 in the final meaning that positions 3-8 were filled with performances of 2.25, with three men sharing the bronze at that height. One of them, Mason, may well have gone higher but injured himself on his second attempt and needed to be taken to hospital.

The gold was again contested between Holm and Rybakov. The taller Russian fell behind because he needed three goes at 2.29 while Holm went over the first time. At 2.32 both went clear straight away. At 2.35 first the Russian failed again, then Holm maintained his perfect record to win a third title in succession.

The qualifying height was 2.30, though 2.24 was all that was necessary for the 17-man final after only six men could clear 2.27. Of the five men to clear 2.30 in the final, only three-time winner Holm lacked a perfect record, and both Holm and Moya took one jump at 2.33 and two at 2.35, after both Rybakov and Thörnblad cleared 2.33 first time. Rybakov then sailed over 2.35 on his first jump, with only Tereshin on his final attempt able to match him. The silver medalist from the previous two championships then made a soaring clearance at 2.37 on his second try, before three failures at 2.41.

Five hours into the contest, Vigneron delighted the crowd with a first-time success at 5.70. Both Vasiliy and Sergey Bubka – recovering from a cold – had failed once at this height.

The Bubkas chose to take their remaining tries at 5.75. Sergey – world outdoor record holder at 5.91 – had a fine clearance while his older brother Vasiliy went out. This was enough to win because the competition, and the Games, ended after midnight with three failures by Vigneron at 5.80 then Bubka at 5.86.

The world outdoor champion passed at 5.70, 5.75 and 5.80, a height cleared by three men – Bell, Vigneron and Salbert. Bubka came in again at 5.85, and a second-time clearance put him into the lead. He stayed there as his three rivals all failed at various efforts at 5.85 or 5.90.

Virtually all the 4000-strong crowd waited as the Ukrainian went higher after all the evening's other events had finished. A second-time clearance at 5.85 seemed to have sealed victory for Johnson. The other three men in failed with their remaining attempts at the height. The last of these, Potapovich, gambled and took his final try at 5.90, a personal best. Failure would have meant fifth place for the Kazak, but he produced a beautiful vault, not even touching the bar.

After failing once at 5.90, Johnson unsuccessfully attempted 5.95. Potapovich, now guaranteed a gold, tried twice for 6.00 before retiring from the competition.

Straight Final (Mar 6)

1,	Jean Galfione	FRA	6.00
2,	Jeff Hartwig	USA	5.95

Galfione became only the fourth man to vault six metres, but not without controversy. Four men were still in at 5.85 – Ecker, Galfione, defending champion Potapovich and Hartwig. Ecker went over first time, Galfione and Hartwig on their third while Potapovich passed.

At 5.90, Hartwig came up with a beautiful effort cleanly over the crossbar. Ecker was eliminated, while the Frenchman and Kazak failed twice. Potapovich passed his remaining vault but Galfione made it. At 5.95 Galfione and Potapovich failed before Hartwig produced another beauty to break his own North American record.

At six metres the two principals failed on the first attempt. With his second Galfione went over, but the slow-motion video replay appeared to show him twice touching the bar with his hand, pictures which drew whistles and boos from some of the crowd. Note that under IAAF rule 172.6.d “... it is illegal if an athlete replaced deliberately with his hands or fingers a bar which is about to fall off the supports.”

It was announced that the clearance had been ruled invalid, and the computer system briefly reflected this, showing Hartwig as the winner. However, this was a mistake. One of the international technical officials had simply queried the clearance and brought it to the attention of the event referee, who felt there had been nothing wrong with the vault. There was no official protest.

“The important thing,” confirmed IAAF General Secretary István Gyulai, “is that the vaulters knew what was going on all the time. Hartwig did not go into his vaults [at 6.00] thinking he was the winner.” Hartwig failed three times at 6.00 before Galfione did the same at 6.05.

At the previous weekend's US Indoor Championships, Johnson had set a national record of 5.96. In Lisbon, he started confidently with a first-time success at his opening height of 5.70. He passed 5.80, a height which only Mesnil and Harvey cleared. At 5.85, Averbukh and Miranda both went out, having gambled after two earlier failures at 5.80. Mesnil and Johnson each went clear first time. Harvey failed twice, but was assured a medal. For his third attempt, the second-string American went for 5.90. He made it, whereas Mesnil failed once and Johnson passed again. The Frenchman allowed the bar to be raised to 5.95 for his second and third attempts. He missed both, and two the Americans also failed on their first two tries. If Johnson were to fail a third time, the gold would be Harvey's. In fact, he just made it, whereas Harvey failed. The US therefore claimed a 1-2.

The experienced Lobinger won his first world title with no failures, either in the qualifying round or at 5.60, 5.75 or 5.80 in the final. Two other men attempted 5.80, Blom and Stolle, but each retired. Blom had set a Dutch record at 5.75, then had to stop after two goes at 5.80 with injury. Stolle missed once at 5.80 then tried for 5.85, only to injure himself with an awkward landing. Lobinger came very near to clearing 5.85 on his last attempt.

The qualifying standard was unprecedented with 13 men at 5.65 or better and the 1995 bronze medallists Brits finding 5.70 insufficient for a place in the eight-man final. Pavlov, the only man to clear the automatic qualifying height of 5.75, was dominant in the final, clearing 5.80 on his first attempt then coming close to 5.85. No-one else got higher than 5.70 though Yurchenko was near to 5.80.

After 10 men cleared 5.65 in the qualifying round – including two who were eliminated after not clearing that height first time – just three were able to jump as high as 5.60 in the final. Until he made his last-ditch clearance at 5.80, Walker trailed Jeng, the Swede of Gambian extraction, who had reached 5.80 without a miss. For the third time in a row 5.80 had been the winning height (only Bubka's winning height in 1985 was lower), while the 5.60 jumped by 2003 winner Lobinger was the lowest-ever height for the bronze medal.

A close battle for the other medals was won by Emordi in the third. Evangelisti was furious that a jump of his in the final round was declared a foul.

The second day's programme was completed by a fascinating long jump competition. Pedroso repeated his 1993 victory by leaping 8.51 in the third round – a distance only Carl Lewis had ever bettered indoors. The Cuban went even further in the fifth round but this was declared a foul. Later that round, Sunneborn moved from fourth to second at 8.20.

Three different men were in line for the bronze medal in the final round. Tudor started the round in third place at 8.08 and improved to 8.11. But, by the end of the round, he was fifth after the two Americans, Greene then Walder, found their best form.

His Olympics were ruined by injury, but Pedroso came back where he left off in Barcelona by matching his championship record of 8.51 in the fifth round. This was backed up with 8.46 and 8.48; the Cuban's other three efforts were fouls. He became only the second man, after walker Mikhail Shchennikov, to win a third successive gold.

The sixth round determined the other medallists. Walder (8.24) was second before he was overtaken by the United States captain, Greene, who leapt 8.41. Sosunov (8.30 in qualifying) also cleared 8.41. This earned him the silver medal as his next best jump was 8.23. Greene's Pedroso, bidding for his fourth successive title, opened with 8.46, the longest jump of 1999. It seemed that he would not need to go further to win; until the middle of the third round the next best effort was the 8.14 of Walder. Lamela then leapt a startling 8.29, a new Spanish record. It meant that he would be the penultimate jumper in the last three rounds, with Pedroso to follow.

In the fourth, Lamela struck again with a brilliant 8.42, the third best ever by a European. Pedroso could manage only a foul. In the fifth, Walder improved to 8.21, Lamela leapt 8.26 and Pedroso fouled again.

The final round could not have been more dramatic. First, Cankar spanned 8.28 to overtake Walder. The American countered with 8.30, meaning he would repeat his bronze from 1995. It was then the turn of the 22 year-old Lamela, and he drew gasps from the crowd by propelling himself out to 8.56. Robert Emmiyan's 1987 European indoor record had fallen, and Pedroso had just one chance to remain as World Indoor Champion. He produced a long jump, but seemed frustrated as he left the pit. Everyone knew it was close to Lamela's mark. The subdued Pedroso then started bouncing with delight when the distance of 8.62 was confirmed; the second best jump in history after Carl Lewis's world record of 8.79.

Iván Pedroso became the first man to win five World Indoor titles thanks to his third-round leap of 8.43. His next best effort was only 7.95 in round one, after which point Streete-Thompson led at 8.16. Calado matched that distance in the second round to set a Portuguese record. As he had earlier leapt 8.11, the Portuguese led briefly on countback. The Cayman Islander nipped in front again with another 8.16 in round two, but both men were displaced by Pedroso's bombshell.

7,	Salim Sdiri	FRA	7.63
	Bogdan Tarus	ROU	DQ (149) (7.97)

Iván Pedroso was absent through injury, which meant there would be a new champion for the first time since 1993. The 1999 silver medallist Lamela was the favourite, having leapt 8.43 that winter. He duly won the qualifying round with 8.12. It was Olympic finalist Phillips, however, who was the leader at the start of the sixth round in the final with 8.23 to Lamela's 8.20.

The contest came alive in the last round, when the jumpers had the stage to themselves at the end of the morning's session. Pate moved into third place at 8.21 then Lamela took over on top with 8.28. Phillips was left with just one more chance and he took it with a jump almost identical to that of the Spaniard. The excited American raced over to the nearest scoreboard and got down on his haunches to wait for the distance to be confirmed. The figures "8.29" flashed up and Phillips rushed off onto the running track to celebrate. "My last jump is always my biggest one," he concluded. Measurement of the two leading jumps from the point of take-off showed that Lamela's was actually three millimetres further: 8.364 to 8.361.

Bogdan Tarus originally placed sixth, but was later disqualified by the IAAF along with two other Romanians when it was proved the qualification marks given on their entry forms were false.

The standard in the final was one of the highest ever, with Sosunov setting a world seventh-place best of 8.16. Stringfellow was the best qualifier at 8.31, but opened up in the final with 8.07 and 8.08 to place only sixth after two rounds. At that point Shkurlatov led from Beckford, 8.28 to 8.23. "String" then hit his best form, spanning 8.40 with barely a centimetre to spare on the board. Beckford responded with 8.30 and 8.31, but the American felt confident enough to pass in rounds 4 & 5.

Saladino set a South American record of 8.10 to lead the qualifying round, which he then exceeded with his first three jumps of the final: 8.18, 8.19 and 8.27. Gaisah, the world leader at 8.36, had jumped 8.27 immediately before Saladino, and proceeded to take the lead for good in the next round with 8.30. Saladino responded well with 8.20 (8.408 from his take-off point) and 8.29 with his last two jumps, but the slim Ghanaian, managed to hold off the spring-heeled Panamanian for the gold. The talented Howe produced two lifetime bests - 8.14 then 8.19 to take the bronze medal. Non-qualifiers included five-time winner Pedroso.

At the US Indoor Championships one week earlier, Mike Conley had produced a world record of 17.76 in the sixth round to beat Oleg Protsenko. The scenario was repeated at Indianapolis. Conley was again pressurised by the Soviet jumper, who led with 17.26 at the start of the final round.

The American waited on the runway for the finish of the men's 3000m before his sixth and final jump. He saw the gold and silver go to Frank O'Mara and Paul Donovan, his team-mates at the University of Arkansas, before leaping 17.54 to win.

He improved to 17.22 in the third but was overtaken when Reyna set a 1989 world best of 17.41 later in the same round. Conley's brilliant response: 17.49, 17.65 and 17.52 with his last three jumps.

Then came one of the most surprising breakthroughs of the championships, when Camara improved from 17.08 to 17.59, an absolute pb by 25cm. The luckless Wellman responded with a very long foul but was out of the medals – at least until Raev's subsequent disqualification for doping.

The pristine Palau Sant Jordi had seen only one meeting before the world indoors, the national junior championships. A Spanish junior triple jump record there indicated the quality of the horizontal jumping facilities, and this was borne out at the world championships.

The triple jump final started the main programme of the last day, and it began dramatically when Wellman produced a foul of world record proportions with his first jump. The Bermudan had already set a 1995 world best of 17.51 in the qualifying round and there was keen anticipation for his appearance in the second round. This time he got a white flag and a distance of 17.72 – the third best ever.

That remained Wellman's only valid leap. He was put under pressure by Quesada, who had been the year's best triple jumper prior to Barcelona. The young Cuban set national records of 17.52 and 17.62.

The competition was marred by a nasty injury to Floréal, who tore a ligament in his right kneecap in the first round.

After that, the final was a disappointment because of an injury to Urrutia, who always appeared with the left strap of his vest pulled down under his armpit. The Cuban was forced to retire after spectacularly and painfully aborting his fifth-round effort. Nevertheless Cuba did take gold thanks to García.

Freidek quickly made his mark with 17.18 in the first round. World outdoor Champion Yoelbi Quesada (16.92) moved into second place in round 2, while in the third US Champion LaMark Carter slipped into third spot with 16.90.

Friedek was unable to get near his opening jump, but nor was anyone else until Dimitrov leapt 17.05 in the fourth, which brought him up to second. In the fifth the Bulgarian passed, Carter (16.98) regained third spot and Friedek had a huge foul.

In the last round Hungary's Zsolt Czinger matched Carter's best distance, but a quick check of the card confirmed that the American would stay ahead on countback. Dimitrov then no-jumped. Friedek, certain of victory, ended with 17.09. Dimitrov was later stripped of his medal and given a public warning after failing a doping control test for stimulants.

In the fourth round, Murphy took over with an Oceanian record of 17.15. Two jumps later, Camossi clicked, producing an Italian record of 17.32.

Edwards had dropped to fourth place, and that is how it stayed until the final round. There, Murphy improved to 17.20. Camossi closed with 16.87. Then, with the competition's very last jump, Edwards landed close to the leading mark of the Italian. The distance was confirmed at 17.26, so the Briton rescued a silver medal. The event was staged before the opening ceremony.

Like the men's 60m hurdles final, this event was positioned at the end of the programme to showcase a top British hope, Jonathan Edwards. The world outdoor record holder duly led at halfway (17.01) but was ultimately kept out of the medals. Olsson (17.28) moved ahead in round four, followed by 17.31 to which Edwards responded with 17.19. The real action unfolded in the last four jumps of the contest. First,

Davis claimed the lead with 17.35. Then Olsson drew gasps from the crowd with a 5.91 hop, 5.51 leap and 6.28 jump for a total of 17.70. Quesada then overtook Edwards with 17.27. The 36 year-old Edwards closed the championships with 17.00.

Thanks to his winning performance – the sixth-longest in history – Olsson was generally regarded as the world's top indoor male athlete of 2003.

Defending Champion Olsson had been unbeaten since before Birmingham 2003 but was given a scare in round two when Gregório bounded out to 17.43, fairly close to the Swede's best of 17.51 at that point. Starting the third round, Olsson then produced his greatest ever leap to equal the world record of 17.83. So the Budapest World Championships had seen four world triple jump records following on from Tatyana Lebedeva's efforts of the previous day. The record had been comprised of a 6.21 hop, 5.12 step and 6.50 jump, with a further 7.2cm to spare by Olsson on take-off. "This wasn't a perfect jump" admitted the Swede. "A perfect jump would have been over 18m."

With two competitions at 17.70 or better, Oprea was the favourite to win. The Romanian took the lead with 17.22 in the opening round, and was followed by Davis, who produced a huge jump in the 17.70 region. The officially announced measurement of 17.30 was clearly incorrect. Davis claimed that the judges had measured the wrong mark, and the jump was remeasured, and changed without announcement to 17.73 during the third round. Gregório, who had led the qualifiers with 17.46, responded best to Davis with 17.56 in the second round, while Betanzos moved past Oprea into third place with 17.42 in the fourth. Oprea responded with the best jumps of the last two rounds – 17.34 and 17.32 – but failed to win a medal. From toe to heel the best marks of the top four were 17.78, 17.58, 17.57 and 17.49.

"Actually I'm training in Baton Rouge on a similar surface so I knew what I should do," said Davies. "That is why somebody like me known for winning on his final attempts was the winner with the first one. I knew that during the competition the surface would switch a little after many jumps. So I put all my energy into the first one.”

This was overtaken first by Belonog (21.02) in round two, then his Ukrainian team-mate Bagach (20.94 in the fifth). Dal Soglio, who had led the world indoor rankings, fouled out of the final with a knee injury.

Straight Final (Mar 5)

8, Andrey Mikhnevich BLR 19.44
9, Andy Bloom USA 18.76; 10, Yuji Okano JPN 16.72

The medallists were the same as in 1997 but the order was different. Bagach was always placed to keep the title in the Ukraine. His first put of 20.78 took the lead and he improved to 21.18 in the second. After the third (Bagach 21.10), another Ukrainian, Belonog, was second (20.89) with Godina third (20.68).

Bagach improved to 21.41 in the fifth but there was no place change until Martínez produced a Spanish record of 20.79 in the sixth. The Spaniard then sat squarely in front of the scoreboard to wait for the result of Godina – who had warmed up for the final with a 22 metre effort – next to throw. Both men were to be disappointed. Godina because his 21.06 failed to catch Bagach, and Martínez because he knew he would be fourth, just as he was in 1995. Bagach ended with a no-throw.

Godina and Nelson made it a 1-2 for the United States, though neither were happy with the conditions. Godina complained about the painted surface of the ring, while Nelson did not like that or the fencing which restricted the width of the sector. That might explain why Nelson followed his opening put of 20.72 with five fouls.

Godina produced 20.72 in the fourth to overtake his team-mate with his backup distance of 20.17. He improved to 20.82 and thus completed a neat progression from bronze in 1997 and silver in 1999. Martínez – who lost a medal in the final round in Maebashi – improved from fifth to third this time with his last put of 20.67.

6,	Tepa Reinikainen	FIN	20.59
7,	Milan Haborák	SVK	20.21
8,	Joachim B. Olsen	DEN	20.12

The defending champion Godina once again had trouble keeping his throws in the sector but looked to have secured a second title when he spun out to 21.23 at the end of the third round. He then produced another two fouls, the second of which was the longest of the day. Meanwhile the consistent Martínez (21.14 in the second) put 21.01 and 20.70. The 1997 winner Belonog was confirmed in third place as the contest ended with the last tries of the big two. First was the shaven-headed Martínez, who produced a wonderfully accurate effort right down the middle of the sector. It was measured at 21.24, so Godina was overhauled. The American's response (20.66) was insufficient.

Hoffa, the favourite, led the qualifiers with 20.76, and opened the final with 21.41. He then put 22.11, a lifetime best and fourth on the world indoor all-time list. Behind him, the gangly 2m tall Sofin was second at the end of round one with a personal best 20.68. He was overtaken in the next round by Olsen (21.16) and Mikhnevich (21.25). The Belorussian produced three of the four efforts over 21m in the second half of the competition, topped by his fourth-round 21.37. Hoffa's one fair throw after his winning effort was 21.61 in round four. 2004 champion Cantwell was expected to threaten Hoffa, but failed to qualify with 19.90.

World Decathlon Champion O'Brien got off to the best possible start to this invitation event, literally, with a 0.104 reaction time in his 60m heat. He finished the first day 215 points ahead of Christian Plaziat's score at the same stage in his world record performance.

O'Brien continued way ahead of record pace on the second day, scoring his fifth win out of five events in the 60m hurdles. A good pole vault guaranteed a world record, but O'Brien squandered much of his 246-point advantage with a weak 1000m run.

The early leaders faltered in this, the first official world championship heptathlon. Nool, the winner of the first two events, slipped to 10th place after a miserable shot effort of 10.46. Then overnight leader Blockburger no-heighted in the pole vault.

By contrast, Plaziat started the second day brilliantly to move from second place to a 71-point lead before the 1000m. The Frenchman could afford to finish fifth in the final event as his closest rival, Barker, struggled in ninth. The minor medals went instead to Dvorák and Dagård, who were first and second in the 1000m.

Huffins had a wonderful start, with a world heptathlon best at 60m of 6.61. The American then had a poor long jump (7.18), and though he rallied to lead again – by 18 points – after six events, a 1000m of close to three minutes left him without a medal.

The 1992 Olympic Decathlon Champion Zmelík was only fourth overnight and gained little on overnight leader Magnússon in the 60m hurdles. The pole vault proved decisive, for the Czech's 5.20 was substantially better than the three men above him in the standings. Second place in the 1000m secured the gold for Zmelík, who said "that is my personal best in the heptathlon and I can tell you that I knew what was at stake financially. I love that sort of motivation."

Huffins had his usual good start, but despite strong support from the crowd, his hopes faded with a 1.96 high jump. He later withdrew after the 60m hurdles with a suspected stress fracture. After the first day the two Czechs – Sebrle and Dvorák – were in front, but it was the third-placed man, Chmara, who was performing nearer to his best form.

The pole vault changed the picture, because neither of the Czechs was particularly strong in this event. Conversely Chmara made 5.20 while Nool cleared 5.50. This lifted the Estonian from seventh to second place, just five points behind the Pole (5489). Sebrle was third (5462), 10 ahead of Dvorák.

Nool needed to beat Chmara by half a second in the 1000m to take gold. He ran the race from the front, but was passed by the Pole at the finish. Sebrle stayed close enough to Dvorák to clinch the bronze medal.

Huffins won the opening event but was to withdraw injured, just as in 1999. Olympic silver medallist Sebrle went ahead in the second event, having set an heptathlon championship record of 7.88. The Czech athlete led by 51 points overnight, and increased this further with a win in the hurdles. A 4.90 pole vault left Sebrle with a little too much to do in the 1000m to challenge the world record. However, he ran hard to clock another event championship best of 2:37.86.

Sebrle's final score of 6420 was four points short of the European record held by his compatriot Tomás Dvorák. Magnússon needed to stay within four seconds of Lobodin in the 1000m to secure the silver medal.

Tom Pappas, one of three decathloning brothers, had a dream contest with indoor personal bests in five events, the 60m, long jump, shot put, 60m hurdles and 1000m. He led by 197 points overnight but lost some of that advantage by clearing only 4.90 in the pole vault. Lobodin cleared 5.30 in that event which meant that if he beat Pappas by 10 seconds or so in the 1000m, he could take the gold. In fact he could get no further than 3.40 ahead. Defending champion Sebrle shaded Magnusson for the bronze.

Bryan Clay opened with a startling 6.65 sprint, but then it was Sebrle who dominated with a shot personal best and victory in the high jump. After the first day the Czech led by 45 points from Clay, 3718 to 3673. The American snatched back the lead with a world indoor heptathlon best hurdles and a personal best pole vault. Moderate performances at those events ended Sebrle's hopes of a world record. Before the 1000m, the Czech was the equivalent of three seconds behind Clay, but since he was by far the better distance runner, one felt that gap would be comfortably closed. So it transpired, with Sebrle almost 10 seconds or 105 points ahead of the American. His winning score was the second best on record.

As in 2004, Clay opened with a fine display of sprinting, this time with 6.67, and by the end of the first day was ahead of Sebrle 3616 to 3578.

The Czech had won the long jump with 7.76 (to Clay's 7.74), and both shared the spoils in the high jump at 2.10. Drozdov outshone them both with 16.64 in the shot, and was third after four events with 3551. Clay extended his lead to 101 points after the 60m hurdles, which he won in 7.83. Then came one of the great "volte-faces" seen in a multi-events championships, as Niklaus – languishing 242 points behind in sixth place – produced a vault of 5.30, while Clay only managed 4.60, some 30cm below his indoor best. Niklaus – the better distance runner of the medal contenders – was now 28 points behind Clay, and 14 ahead of Sebrle. The German duly won the 1000m with 10m to spare over Sebrle, with Clay a further 12m behind, and so defeated the American by just five points. This was the closest margin in a men's major championship since Vasiliy Kuznetsov beat Werner von Moltke by four points in the 1962 European Decathlon.

The Frenchman went in front two laps later only for Damilano to lead again at 4000m. Lelièvre, however, was stronger and struck again at 4400m. The 35 year-old pulled away to win with the second-quickest indoor time in history.

Reigning World Junior Champion Shchennikov, just 19, quickly opened a gap of 15m in the first 200m. At 3000m (11:05.14) he was some six seconds in front. Pribilinec led the chasers and closed quickly in the final kilometre, taking the lead with four laps remaining.

The Czech had gone into a five metre lead by the bell, only to be overtaken by the Soviet with 100m to go. Pribilinec responded and the two moved progressively quicker as the end approached. A dip finish from Shchennikov earned him the gold in a new world record – by a margin of just 0.01.

The winning performance was ratified as a world record: faster times by Shchennikov, Ronald Weigel and Frants Kostyukevich in 1988/89 were never ratified for various reasons.

The 1989 bronze medallist Kostyukevich, now the world record holder, led through 3000m (11:07.40) before De Benedictis moved ahead, taking defending champion Shchennikov for company. Shchennikov himself tried to get away, but the Italian kept his position and looked as if he would spoil the Russian's unbeaten record in the championships. Shchennikov, however, managed to slip ahead in the final 5m, giving a stunned De Benedictis no chance to respond. Both were quicker than Kostyukevich's pending world record.

Twenty entries necessitated heats for the first time at a men's world indoor championships, but disqualification of eight walkers meant that all those who finished in the heats made the final.

The stage was set for a memorable final when the USA came within 0.33 of the world record in the heats. A unified German team were impressive winners of the other heat.

The final was a close race. Germany led for the first two legs before US trials winner Valmon took over on the third stage, clocking 45.5 to Just's 46.35. McKay had a 0.7 advantage over Schönlebe on the anchor. The German – holder of the individual world title outdoors – closed the gap and tucked in behind McKay until the final straight. Then he edged ahead for a thrilling victory in a new world record by more than two seconds.

Jason Rouser's 46.78 opener for the United States might sound ordinary, but it was a key contribution. It took his team clear of the pile-up which occurred among the tightly-packed chasing group at the first changeover. Everett, a relay champion in 1993, went further away on the second stage. Japan led the chasing pack until Tamesue was accidentally tripped.

While the United States raced to victory, Jamaica went clear in second place. The home crowd roared on their squad who almost lost the baton at their second exchange and were cut up by Austria on the third leg. Mango, however, ran a beautifully-judged anchor for the French to pip Russia for the bronze. Potential winners Great Britain went out in the heats after dropping the baton.

A fantastic race which was not spoiled by the collisions and falls which occurred in 1997. As expected, Morris put the United States into the lead. He clocked 45.85, tremendous running for the opening leg of an indoor relay. Poland, Jamaica and Britain followed.

On the second leg, Bocian put his team in front, and Poland increased their lead on the third leg, thanks to Rysiukiewicz's split of 45.77. Meanwhile, Patrick was putting Britain into medal contention. He clocked the fastest time on the third stage (45.39) to overtake Jamaica.

Mackowiak and Campbell set off so quickly on the anchor stage that they left the new World Indoor Champion Baulch with an impossible task after their first lap. Campbell latched on to Mackowiak, and, holding his blue baton by the tip, stole past at the finish to win for the US in a world record of 3:02.83. The American's split of 44.75 was the fastest of the race.

By halfway, the United States seemed to be heading for a runaway victory thanks to sub-46 legs by Campbell and Byrd. Their third man was 800m specialist Gray, and though he stayed in front, Poland, Jamaica and Russia closed the gap before the final changeover. The Poles were fielding the same quartet which had won silvers in 1999.

Young, the US anchor, could not shake off his pursuers. Mackowiak and Semyonov, both renowned relay runners, were close behind on the final backstraight. The Russian was in third place and it was he who kicked first, but Mackowiak had the same idea and crept up to Young's shoulder on the last bend then flashed past in the home-straight. The Pole therefore made amends for 1999, when he had been the one overtaken in the closing stages.

In 2003 it was confirmed that Young had committed a doping violation in June 1999 and all his performances until June 2001 – including at Lisbon – were annulled. So Russia were promoted to silver with Jamaica third.

Spain and the Bahamas were disqualified in the heats, meaning that only five teams contested the final. The United States led all the way with special credit to the 1999 and 2001 individual silver medallist Milton Campbell. He put his team 10m ahead with a 45.10 on stage three. Also on that leg, Blackwood put Jamaica ahead of Britain, for whom Caines almost dropped the baton at the last changeover.

On the anchor leg, Washington started with a big advantage over Jamaica. It was only two and-a-half hours after his individual win, and the renowned relay performer Davian Clarke (45.24) closed right up on the new champion. However, Washington (46.47) held on for victory. The winning quartet were all aged 26.

Jamaica led at the first changeover, then that master indoor performer Milton Campbell put the USA narrowly ahead by halfway. Bahamas had been contesting the bronze with Russia until Munnings fell over on the second stage. On leg three, McDonald went ahead, then Mendel responded to put the US in front again approaching the anchor. Herring set off and turned to receive the baton but could not get a hold. The exhausted Mendel then fell, still with his baton which bounced free on to the track. It was retrieved by Herring who set off in third place, but his team was disqualified because the runner who drops a baton (in this case Mendel) must be the one top pick it up. Meanwhile Jamaica ran out easy winners from Russia and Ireland, who originally thought they had placed fourth behind the USA.

Final (Mar 12)

1,	United States	3:03.24
2,	Poland	3:04.67
3,	Russia	3:06.91
4,	Sweden	3:07.32
5,	Dominican Republic	3:08.47
6,	France	3:09.55

The USA ran 3:03.66 in the heats, more than two seconds faster than any other team, to establish their credentials as favourites. Washington established a seven-metre lead for the USA with his excellent opening leg of 45.71, and was followed by Merritt (45.65) and Campbell (45.76). The three fastest legs of the race ensured a 15m lead over Poland when Spearmon took over the baton, and while Klimczak was able to close slightly on Spearmon, the Americans were never in trouble. They finished in 3:03.24, the sixth-fastest time ever.

Defending champions Jamaica were eliminated in the heats after being involved in two collisions.

Canada had high hopes of duplicating Ben Johnson's 60m success in the women's sprint, as Issajenko had recently lowered the world 50m record. European Champion Cooman got the best start but appeared to be caught by Issajenko just before the line. However, the official result was announced as a narrow victory by the Dutchwoman.

Canada protested in vain over the result, and Cooman was regarded as a lucky winner ... until the Canadian's performance was later annulled by the IAAF Council. Issajenko, like Ben Johnson, had admitted to drug-taking at the time of the championships.

Ottey came to Seville with a winning streak of 84 successive races, including her heat and semi-final. She never made it to 85 because of a startling run by Sergeyeva, who had improved out of all recognition during the winter. The Moscow housewife sped to a championship record of 7.02. "I can't be that upset about it, I just started lousy," said Ottey. "When you start like that, you don't expect to win a 60m race."

Having reverted from Sergeyeva to her maiden name of Privalova, the 23 year-old Russian had enjoyed a brilliant indoor campaign, with world records at both 50m (6.05) and 60m (6.92).

In Toronto she faced the Olympic Champion at 100m, Devers. The preliminaries showed that the two were closely matched, but when it came to of the final, the American had clearly the better start. This made all the difference. Privalova chased in vain and became the first woman to run a sub-7 second 60m and lose.

5,	Endurance Ojokolo	NGR	7.38	0.212
6,	Irina Privalova	RUS	7.88	0.158

The two principals were Privalova and Devers, so the event was a rematch of Toronto 1993. In the semi-finals the American appeared to relax too much at the finish and only qualified by a margin of 0.007 from Katerína Thánou. In the final Privalova got a good start and looked to be heading for victory. After around 10 strides the Russian pulled up clutching her left leg. Her momentum carried her through the finish line in last place, leaving Devers to score a clear win.

The American looked round and rushed straight back to console Privalova. "My heart dropped when I saw she was not there at the end," said Devers. "I have nothing but respect for her." It transpired that Privalova's hamstring had been torn, putting her out of action for a year.

	Inger Miller	USA	DQ (39) (7.06)	0.124

Devers (lane 7) got the better start while Thánou was no better than 5th or 6th out of the blocks. It looked for most of the race as if the Greek might have left her best running in the preliminaries (7.01 heat, 6.99 semi). Then in the last 15m she stormed through the field, running clear of Devers, whose "double dip" was no help this time. On the other side of the track, Miller got the best of a blanket finish for the bronze.

Thánou's time of 6.96 had only ever been bettered by Irina Privalova, Devers and Marion Jones.

In October 2001, it was disclosed that Miller had failed a doping control test for caffeine in Maebashi. The sanction for this offence was disqualification and a public warning, so Mensah was promoted to the bronze medal position. The delay in announcing the result was due to lengthy hearings and appeal procedure.

The only European finalist was Pendareva, who had set a 2001 world best of 7.04 in her semi-final. Unfortunately for her, the Bulgarian stumbled at the start of the final, where Sturup achieved the brilliant reaction time of 0.110. The Bahamian went on to win in a personal best of 7.05 from the American pair of Williams and Gaines.

"To put three perfect starts together like this today was for me a dream." remarked the winner, who had won the silver medal in Paris 1997.

The World outdoor 100m champion Block (formerly Pintusevich/Tarnapolskaya) made a very late decision to contest these championships, but must have been pleased that she did as she was a very comfortable winner. Angela Williams had the best start in the final, but was soon run down by Block, who had an empty lane to her right due to the scratching of Savatheda Fynes. Williams repeated her 2001 silver ahead of Edwards, but more attention was focussed on the fourth-placer Merlene Ottey. At 42 she fell only 0.03 short of a bronze medal. Sixteen years earlier in Indianapolis, she had filled the same position. In Birmingham, she was making her championship debut for Slovenia, her home since 1999.

The 1985 winner Koch had announced her retirement shortly before the championships, but the title remained with the GDR through Drechsler. The crowd, still buzzing after Ben Johnson's 60m win, were treated to another world record. Remarkably, the 22 year-old East German bettered Koch's world record in her first try at the event indoors.

"That's enough world records," said the winner, who had won the long jump gold earlier in the day. "I just want to go home and see my husband."

Ottey, drawn one lane inside Drechsler, actually matched strides with the East German for the first 150m and was rewarded with a Commonwealth record.

Following a succession of silvers and bronzes at major championships, Ottey finally won a gold medal in magnificent style. Running from lane 4, the Jamaican drew gasps from the crowd at the rate at which she closed the stagger on the backstraight. She won by 6m from Jackson, and missed Drechsler's world record by just 0.07.

Ottey (lane 4) was keen to make amends for her surprise defeat in the 60m, and had Sergejeva (lane 6) in her sights in the final. The first morning session of the championships indicated that the track was slow. None of the men's heat times were quicker than 21 seconds. However, there was one fast time in the women's heats – an Oceanian record of 22.64 by Gainsford, who went on to go one better than her 1993 silver with a repeat of that heat time.

Fabé Dia of France ran in both heat 2 and heat 4 after a volunteer crossed the track and blocked her way in the first of those races.

The policy of allocating lanes of the 200m races in Paris was that the three best qualifiers were given lanes 3, 4 or 5. Yet lane 6 proved to be the lane in which both the men's and women's gold medallists were drawn.

The best of the semi-finalists was Juliet Cuthbert, who won her heat in 22.62, just outside her personal best. The final saw her drawn in the worst of the three "preferred" lanes, lane 3. The Jamaican raced into the lead, but much effort had gone into negotiating her tight bend at top speed. She could not respond when Kóffa (lane 6) edged in front down the finishing straight. As she placed second in her semi-final, Kóffa had been given one of the unseeded lanes; she could just have easily been placed in lane 1 or 2.

In May 1998, the IAAF Council decided that in future indoor 200m championships, the outermost lanes should go to the best placed athletes in earlier rounds.

6, Birgit Rockmeier	GER	23.74	0.142

Drawn inside her biggest rival Goncharenko, Tîrlea (lane 5) went ahead on the second bend and stormed away down the straight. The time of 22.39 made her the joint fifth fastest woman of all-time.

After the final, Tîrlea claimed that she had come to Maebashi undecided about running the 200m or 400m. One wondered what she might achieve outdoors in her main event, the 400m hurdles, but she went on to be injured for most of 1999 and 2000.

	Michelle Collins	USA	DQ (39) (22.18)

A French victory looked likely after European Champion Hurtis clocked 22.75 in the first round then a national record of 22.49 in the first semi-final. Then Collins provided one of the surprises of the championships by lowering her own national record to 22.31 in the second semi. Her outdoor best was just 22.57 and she was best known as a 400m runner.

In the final, the American drew the favourable lane six and although Hurtis (lane 5) appeared to make up some of the stagger on the first bend, the American stretched away in the last 100m to win in 22.18 for third on the world all-time list. Kapachinskaya pipped defending champion Campbell for the bronze. Unfortunately for Collins, she suffered an injury in jury to her left hamstring during the race and never competed again in 2003.

In July 2004, the US Anti-Doping Agency announced that it was seeking a lifetime ban for Collins for drug use. Evidence revealed by the federal investigation into the Bay Area Laboratory Co-Operative (BALCO) – a Northern California nutrition company – allegedly showed that Collins was a client. She denied the claims and intended to take her case to the Court of Arbitration for Sport, but in the summer of 2005 Collins accepted a four-year suspension from July 16, 2004 plus disqualification of all her results from February 1, 2002. So after more than two years, Hurtis was declared the World Indoor Champion of 2003.

Mayr-Krifka had a big contingent of supporters on the backstraight and led into the finishing straight, only to be passed by three women with Kapachinskaya (lane 6) ending up an easy winner. With this being the last ever world indoor 200m final, the Russian ought to have stood as champion for eternity, but she failed her doping test and so was disqualified. The title therefore went to Safronnikova, who in any case had run fantastically well from lane 3 to defeat all the legitimate competitors drawn on her outside.

There was disappointment at the withdrawal of 1985 winner Dixon and the loss of form by Müller. The upsets continued in the final, when Busch, a comfortable winner, was disqualified for stepping into lane 3 on the first bend. After a protest, she was re-instated.

Busch won from the front, passing halfway in 23.95. Conversely, runner-up Leatherwood was last at the 300m point before improving to win the only US women's medal of the championships.

A very open event, which was possibly decided when Arendt beat everyone to the 200m point in 23.80. In the process she bumped Dixon, the 1985 winner, who had clocked the fastest semi-final time. The tall German kept up the pace on the second lap and easily held off Dixon's charge.

Dixon felt she lost the 1989 title after being pushed at the bell. This time, she took no chances and raced off to a clear lead at 200m (23.92). The American, wearing a special silver-grey headband, pulled away in the second lap while Myers moved into second place. The American-born Spaniard was poised to catch Dixon in the straight, but the New Yorker did not fade and crossed the line in 50.64, the world's fastest time in three years. It was the first world indoor championship title to be won by a US woman.

All six finalists set personal bests, with the first three setting national records.

As in 1993, Irina Privalova had compiled an excellent indoor season, with world records at 50m (5.96), 60m (6.92) and a European record at 200m (22.10). There were high hopes that the popular Russian might set another record in Barcelona in what would be her first foray at 400m indoors.

In the final, she raced through the first lap in 23.89 and passed 300m in around 36.7. Only defending champion Richards could offer a challenge. Privalova ended up with 50.23, the fourth quickest ever and the world's fastest since 1984. "The race was easy but I was very tired and had some problems with my nose," said the winner, "possibly a virus."

Breuer and Opara fought for the lead at the bell, closely followed by Richards with Miles Clark 2m back. Approaching 300m, Richards squeezed in between the two leaders, bumping Opara in the process. The Jamaican led into the straight but was then run down by Miles Clark. Opara and Breuer faded to the back of the field.

Breuer ran the quickest first 150m and swept down from lane 5 to pass halfway in 23.59. Ogunkoya was a close second, followed by Guevara, Miles Clark and the two Jamaicans. Unlike 1997 when she finished last, the German did not falter and gradually lengthened her lead to win in a 1999 world best. Ogunkoya remained a clear second, but Guevara was caught by Miles Clark.

Reid was the fastest starter in the final, but by the bell (23.65) the experienced Richards was in front. Kotlyarova – the world leader at 50.42 – tried to get past on the last bend but the 32 year-old Jamaican continued to run strongly and regained her title. In the straight Kotlyarova eased off and was closed on by her team-mate Zykina.

Natalya Nazarova was the fastest woman in the world with 50.57 and was much the quickest heat winner in 51.24, but that result was soon annulled because Nazarova was disqualified for a lane infringement. After an examination of a video of the race, she was re-instated by the Jury of Appeal and won her semi-final in 50.90. By this stage, two serious challengers had emerged from the Bahamas: Amertil and Williams. Amertil finished close behind Nazarova in the first semi and Williams won the second in 51.25 ahead of former champion Breuer, but she ran out of her lane and was disqualified.

Nazarova and Amertil battled for the lead in the first lap of the final. The Russian was slightly ahead and passed 200m in 23.57. Amertil was on the Russian's left shoulder and lost her stride when the leader cut in, losing around 5m at the bell. Nazarova raced clear in the third 100m, but her advantage was reduced as the Bahamian and Breuer duelled for the silver medal.

At the Russian indoor championships Nazarova had threatened the world indoor record with 49.68, while Krasnomovets was second in 50.82. The two Russians won their semis and dominated in the final where Nazarova passed halfway about two metres up on Krasnomovets in 23.70. She went on to break the championship record with her compatriot second, though Krasnomovets did come under pressure from Williams who was only fifth at the bell.

Shockinglly, the 2003 and 2004 champion Nazarova was left without a medal. Stambolova and Krasnomovets were the fastest in the heats and semi-finals, with the Bulgarian edging Nazarova 50.66 to 50.67 in the first race, while Krasnomovets was a clear winner ahead of Amertil. The US Champion Richards – fighting a heavy cold – failed to qualify. Nazarova – who had won the Russian title with the fastest time in the world in 2006 (49.98) – was the early leader in the final, passing 200m in 23.61. She still led at 300m (36.4), but in the last 50m was passed by Krasnomovets, Amertil and Stambolova. The fast-finishing Bulgarian then moved into second spot behind the ecstatic Russian who set the only championship record of the weekend.

Mutola, unbeaten in more than two years, set off in pursuit of a world indoor record. The pace was even quicker than her front-running effort in Toronto. She went through 200m in 26.67, 400m in 56.18 and 600m in 86.85. This proved to be over-ambitious: the defending champion faded to 1:57.62, just outside her Toronto time. Nevertheless, it was her 39th consecutive win in a final.

Mutola's participation was in doubt after the recent death of her father in Mozambique. She ran with a black ribbon pinned to her vest.

Mutola went straight into the lead, but did not cut out as fast a pace as she had at the previous two championships. The field stayed in touch and Hodgkinson led briefly at around 500m. Mutola quickly regained the lead and easily held off Dukhnova at the finish.

Having just seen her sister-in-law win the 400m, Clark outdipped Vriesde for the bronze.

Mutola ran from the front. Two other undefeated women from 1999, Formanová and Tsyganova, latched on. Soon they three were metres clear of the rest of the field, and the splits showed why. The Mozambique runner reached 200m in 26.67 and 400m in 55.39.

Mutola kept running strongly to the bell (1:25.79), with Tysganova and Formanová still in touch. At the start of the last backstraight, Formanová move ominously from third to second and in the straight moved wide to challenge Mutola. A glance sideways from the Mozambique runner told her that Formanová was on her way past. The Czech won in 1:56.90, the second-fastest time in history.

Graf had beaten Mutola 3-1 so far in 2001 and in Lisbon the two provided one of the races of the championships. The Austrian led through 200m (28.38), before Fuchsová took over and kept up the fast pace at 400m (59.99) and 600m (90.47).

The 35 year-old Czech drew Graf and Mutola away from the rest and stayed ahead until Graf sprinted past with 100m left. Mutola followed, and along the straight her and Graf ran level before Mutola inched in front on the line. She covered the last 200m in 28.7.

Mutola was already the only athlete to win all global titles on offer this century: Sydney 2000, Lisbon & Edmonton 2001. She continued that sequence in Birmingham in a final which was paced by the much-improved Fenn, who went out in the first round in 2001.

The British runner sped through 200m in 27.54, 400m in 57.89 and 600m in 1:28.75. She was still ahead on the last bend before Mutola broke clear, followed by Graf, Ceplak and Martínez.

Mutola had lost vital training time because of injury resulting from a fall at the Birmingham Grand Prix on February 20. There were question marks over her form, but these were dispelled in the first round when she provoked memories of Wilson Kipketer 1997 and ran from the front for a fast time. Her splits were 27.37, 56.35 and 86.94 before a final time of 1:57.72.

After a more sedate semi-final, Mutola tracked Ceplak in the final through 28.41 200m, 58.61 400m and 89.23 600m. The Slovenian kept running strongly with Mutola challenging on the outside on the last bend. The defending champion was determined to get to the curb before the straight and did so sharply, blocking Ceplak in the process. The Slovenian lost vital ground, and though she fought hard again in the straight there was no time left to catch the Mozambique runner. A protest by Ceplak was not upheld and Mutola became the first ever six-time World Indoor Champion.

Fenn won the bronze after a reverse of her 2003 tactics. This time she held back and moved from sixth to third in the last 130m.

Maria Mutola, competing in her eighth championships, won the fastest heat, and in the next day's semis set a seasonal best of 2:00.29. The final was led by Mutola and Kotlyarova, the fastest Moscow entrant on 2006 form (1:57.51). At 200m (27.48) and 400m (58.48) Mutola held the lead. At 550m, the Russian made a big effort to get in front and she was ahead at 600m in 1:29.31, but not by enough to take the inside lane from Mutola and so was forced to run wide on the penultimate bend. The Mozambique woman sped away to win by five metres from Sinclair while the demolished Kotlyarova faded out of the picture. It was Mutola's seventh title (no-one else has more than five in a single event), and her 178th time below two minutes [increased to 191 as at December 31, 2007.]

Kitova set the pace up to 1200m (65.42, 2:14.78 and 3:21.92), but all eyes were on her team-mate, Samolenko, who was hoping to add to her 1987 3000m gold. The long-haired Soviet did move to the front early in the final lap, but was no match for the fierce finishing speed of Melinte, who opened a gap of 10m in the last 100m.

In a bizarre training test, McColgan lined up for this straight final just 13 minutes after her courageous silver medal run in the 3000m. In the interim, she had breathed oxygen in an ambulance parked outside the stadium. Incredibly, she was able to place a respectable sixth in an indoor personal best.

The race was paced, as it had been in 1987, by Kitova, who attempted to blunt the fast finish of Melinte. After following the Soviet runner, who passed 400m in 63.35, 800m in 2:11.06, and 1200m in 3:19.74, Melinte uncorked a 29.03 final 200m to retain her title.

Rogachova won from the front, having set a pace which was initially quicker than in the men's 1991 final. Her intermediate times were 65.51, 2:12.19 and 3:19.21. Defending Champion Melinte was shut out of the medals on the final circuit by Kubesová and Chidu.

The Czech runner achieved the unusual feat of winning medals under three different names. As Kleinová then Walterová, she won European indoor bronzes in 1983 & 1987 respectively.

The winter of 1997 saw 38 year-old Mary Slaney approach her best-ever form. The former world outdoor champion won her national title in 4:03.08, the seventh-quickest ever. She was favoured to win her first title since Helsinki 1983, but ended up being pipped by a woman six years her senior!

A stumble on the first lap of the final seem to spur Slaney, for she went on to set a pace which strung out the field (64.08 at 400m, 2:09.81 at 800m). The American continued to run from the front and showed no signs of fading on the final lap, which she completed in a quick 31.64. It was not quite enough for victory, because the defending champion Podkopayeva (45) was even faster. Just as Slaney appeared to have the race won from the front, Podkopayeva closed and caught the American on the line. The Russian therefore regained her 1993 title and broke her own record as the oldest ever world indoor champion.

It was confirmed in 1999 that Slaney had failed a doping control test in the summer of 1996, meaning that she was eventually stripped of her silver medal from Paris.

Komyagina set a fast pace of 63.76 at 400m and 2:10.57 at 800m. The two favourites followed; Szabo and Dulecha. On the penultimate lap, Szekely moved ahead of Dulecha, who suddenly faded to the back of the field. By the bell, Szabo had gone ahead and launched her finishing kick. The 33 year-old Szekely stayed in touch with her compatriot and pressured Szabo all the way around the final lap. The younger Romanian won with a championship record. It was her third world indoor gold, while Szekely (née Beclea) won her third silver medal.

Szabo's (and Szekely's) finishing speed was impressive. Their final 300m was inside 45 seconds, with the last 200m around 28 seconds, remarkable considering the flat-out sprint did not start until around 150m from home.

To the disappointment of the Lisbon crowd, Gorelova came through to pip Sacramento for the bronze.

The Dutchwoman went clear in the final 100m to take almost six seconds from the world record. McColgan also was comfortably inside the old mark.

"I knew that, if, with a lap to go I was behind Liz everything would be all right," said van Hulst. "The main thing was for me to stay close to her. She was the ideal rabbit."

After several attempts, Gabriela Szabo had finally broke the world indoor record for 3000m earlier in 2001, but in Lisbon she lost her unbeaten record at World Indoor Championships. The Romanian was in front at 1000m (2:53.32) and 2000m (5:50.83), but allowed herself to be overtaken by Zadorozhnaya on the penultimate lap. It was the other Russian, Yegorova, who then sprinted to the front before the bell, taking Szabo by surprise. The defending champion was blocked momentarily by Zadorozhnaya before giving chase. However, Yegorova raced clear with a stunning 28.13 last lap and became the first woman to defeat Szabo at 3000m since 1995. Oceanian, Asian, Spanish and Irish records were all broken in this race.

"I thought that Szabo would probably overtake me," admitted Yegorova, "but it just didn't work out that way."

Her first kilometre was 3:21.10 followed by 3:06.46, but then things got much quicker as the Ethiopian pair of Adere and Defar surged before the bell with Adere holding a narrow lead. In Birmingham she had won with Defar third but this time Defar came through to win in the closing metres.

Culpepper was ideally placed when the Ethiopians set off and won an unexpected bronze medal, though she almost tripped over after colliding with Zadorozhnaya on the last lap.

With only 13 entrants, heats were not required, and the race came down to the question of whether the pace-setting Russians, Shobukhova and Syreva – the two fastest women of all time – could deal with the big kick of defending champion Defar. The first two kilometres were led by Syreva (2:51.73) and Shobukhova (5:50.86). Defar then went ahead, passing 2600m in 7:39.2, and at the bell was five metres clear. She then threw in a devastating final lap of 27.45 and won by 25m from Shobukhova, with Chojecka claiming the bronze.

Ewanjé-Epée, the European outdoor Champion, got the best start but the three women were level for the first four barriers until Narozhilenko edged ahead. The drama in this event began before the competition started, when it was confirmed that world record holder and defending champion Narozhilenko had failed a doping test earlier in the winter and was scratched from the championships.

This left Freeman as favourite, and the Jamaican had a fine start in the final. Unfortunately, she hit the last hurdle badly and veered into the path of Baumann, who had been lying a clear second. Graudyñ "won" the race.

Following a protest by the Swiss Federation, a re-run was ordered with Freeman disqualified. Justice was done as victory went to Baumann. The unlucky Graudyñ finished just outside the final medal distribution.

Shishigina, unbeaten all season, was expected to win easily, so it was something of a surprise when López edged the Asian record holder in the first semi-final at 7.91. The final was a repeat of that race, with both women clocking 7.92. Bukovec was just one hundredth behind, while world leader Patricia Girard failed to finish.

Freeman, so unlucky in 1993, almost came to grief again after stumbling in her semi-final. Drawn in lane 1 for the final, the Jamaican had the best pick-up and was clearly in front at the last hurdle. Russell, Dickey and Girard all closed on the run-in so that four women reached the finish in a line. All were awarded medals, with the ecstatic Freeman finally holding on for gold. With five athletes under 7.90 this was the quickest 60m hurdles race in history.

Having won the flat 60m in 1993 and 1997, 36 year-old Devers won her first 60m hurdles title in style with a championship record 7.80 semi followed by a 7.81 final. Alozie, a silver medallist for Nigeria in 1999, won the same medal again in the colours of Spain.

Having won the Budapest 60m flat on the Friday, Devers couldn't quite make it a double on the Sunday in the 60m hurdles. The first semi was won by Felicien – the World Outdoor Champion – in a Canadian record of 7.83. Devers took the other heat in 7.88. In the final Devers started best, but next to her Felicien stayed close and overhauled the American to win in a championship record of 7.75.

Never a finalist in a major championship, O'Rourke had improved from 8.02 to 7.90 during the winter, but was not considered a medal prospect until edging Alozie 7.87 to 7.88 in her semi-final. The other semi-final was won by Bolm in 7.91, and as in the men's event just 0.09 separated the fastest and slowest qualifiers. In the final O'Rourke was away well, while Bolm was left in her blocks, despite her fast reaction time. O'Rourke kept ahead of the fast-finishing Alozie, and won by 0.02 seconds, becoming the first Irish woman to win an indoor world title.

For the first time, three women cleared two metres in the same competition. Dragieva made 2.00 at her first attempt before missing out at 2.02. Beyer-Helm and Kostadinova made 2.02 on their first and second attempts respectively.

Beyer-Helm retired, leaving Kostadinova to try to add one centimetre to her world record of 2.04. This she did at the second attempt to duplicate her Paris victory. It was her 44th win from 45 contests.

Two of history's most successful jumpers, Kostadinova and Bykova, were the only ones to succeed at 1.97. The Bulgarian had the edge, with no failures and she continued the sequence at 2.00 and 2.02 while Bykova went out at 2.02 after making 2.00 on her third try. Kostadinova, who had only competed once before that winter due to injury, had several centimetres to spare in her 2.02 clearance but failed at 2.05. She became the first athlete to win three consecutive world indoor titles.

Former champion Kostadinova was obviously back to her best. Three women cleared 2.00 first time, the Bulgarian by a comfortable margin. It was no surprise that she was the only one to succeed at 2.02. She gestured at once for the bar to be raised to a world record of 2.08. The crowd, which had stayed behind after all the other day's events were over, were treated to three progressively closer failures.

Kostadinova therefore made it five world indoor wins out of five, a unique achievement at the time and matched only by Cuban long jumper Ivan Pedroso in 2001.

At 1.93, it was a surprise to see the two women with the highest jumps of the year – Dinescu and Lyakhova – fail with their first tries. Dinescu made it on her second try but the Russian went out. Waller and Hlavonová went into the lead with their first-time successes.

At 1.96, Kalcheva went over first time as did Hlavonová. The Czech therefore moved in front as Kalcheva had more earlier failures. Of the others only Waller made 1.96 on her third try, though Dinescu was agonisingly close.

The three guaranteed medallists progressed to 1.99. All failed first time, though Waller was close. Kalcheva – who had already twice improved her indoor best of 1.92 – then barely touched the bar with a successful clearance. The others failed, leaving Kalcheva to score Bulgaria's sixth victory in the event; the other five belonging to the great Stefka Kostadinova, now retired.

Four of the 13 finalists cleared 1.96. Two – Bergqvist and Babakova – went on to succeed with their first attempts at 1.98. The 35 year-old Ukrainian was in pole position as she had no failures to this point, whereas the Swede had missed once at 1.93. Fortunes were reversed at 2.00, which Bergqvist cleared first time while Babakova needed three tries. Bergqvist therefore became the first woman athlete from her country to win a world indoor title.

The standard was fierce with a record 10 women clearing 1.95 in the qualifying round. The defending champion and favourite Bergqvist was only the 10th of these. She had two failures and left the bar wobbling on the third, but in the next day's final it was a different story.

Seven women were still in as the bar went up to 1.99, with only Bergqvist and Vlasic without failure. Bergqvist was over first time again and the Russians Yelesina and Chicherova made it on their second go. Vlasic failed twice and then tried unsuccessfully for 2.01, so she was consigned to fourth place. Jumping before the Russians, Bergqvist maintained her perfect record. Her two opponents failed so the Swede won without missing once.

6,	Marta Mendía	ESP	1.94
7,	Venelina Veneva	BUL	1.94
8,	Viktoriya Styopina	UKR	1.91

Five women went over 1.97 in the final with Vlasic and Slesarenko the only ones with no failures. At 2.00 only the Russians were successful, each with their second attempts. The first of the two to go at 2.02, Chicherova failed then her compatriot went over straight away to set a personal best. Chicherova failed again then went for 2.04. She missed but even a clearance by her would not have been enough to win because Slesarenko again succeeded, without touching, a new Russian record. "I'm a very emotional jumper," said the winner.

The importance of clearing qualifying heights first time was emphasized when Mendia and Straková achieved 1.93 the second and third time respectively, but failed to make the eight-athlete final. Olympic Champion Slesarenko also cleared 1.93 on her second attempt, but then made 1.96 to guarantee qualification.

The final saw the bar reach 2.00 before any medals were decided. Slesarenko, Vlasic and Beitia had no misses at that point, while Savchenko had cleared 1.98 at her third attempt. Only Vlasic (on her second attempt) and Slesarenko (on her third) made 2.00, and the elegant Russian retained her world title after her first-time clearance at 2.02. It was a pity that the new world indoor record holder (at 2.08) Kajsa Bergqvist was absent.

World record holder George was the big favourite for the first ever world women's pole vault gold, and cleared 4.00 in qualifying with about 60cm to spare. In the final, she had an excellent first-time clearance at 4.35. Cai also made it on her third attempt, while Dragila needed three tries.

At 4.40, George's world record height, both Cai and George failed but Dragila, who had already set two national records, went into the lead with a superb first-time success. Cai went out at the height. George failed again and so took her last try, unsuccessfully, at 4.45.

It was later clarified that Dragila would not be eligible for a world record bonus as she had only matched and not broken the world record.

A telling statistic of this mammoth contest was that it took precisely one hour for the first of the 23 contestants to be eliminated. Twenty-one were still in at 4.20, and of the 15 who attempted 4.35, eight were successful. Szabó and the German pair of Ryshich and Humbert, also made it on their first attempts. The world outdoor record holder George and defending champion Dragila all needed three.

At 4.45, Flosadóttir was the only one to clear first time. In the second round, George withdrew with an injury to her right hamstring while Ryshich went clear. Everyone else went out at 4.45 then Ryshich and Flosadóttir each had two losses at 4.50. On her third attempt Ryshich (later Reiberger) brushed the bar as she went over, but her speed and flexibility kept her from dislodging it on her descent.

7,	Yelena Isinbayeva	RUS	4.25
	Anzhela Balakhonova	UKR	NH

The standard was high with 4.51 proving insufficient for a medal. Surprisingly, it was world record holder Dragila who missed out. She had cleared 4.70 in training but when it mattered she failed three times at 4.56. Suttle also went out at that height, but on countback placed ahead of her better-known compatriot.

Despite having her left shoulder elaborately taped, European Indoor Champion Hamácková broke the Czech record first with 4.51, then with a first-time success at a championship record of 4.56. Passing that height was Feofanova, and she then joined the Czech in attempting 4.61. Much to her disappointment, the Russian's gamble did not pay off. Neither woman could clear 4.61, so Hamácková took the gold with Feofanova and Suttle sharing the silver.

Dragila raised the world record to 4.78 12 days before the championships and had been near to 4.88 (16 feet) in training, so it was a shock that she could not even clear her opening height of 4.30 in the qualifying round. In fact she barely seemed to attempt a clearance. There was from the American other than "it's been a bad day at work".

The Russians Feofanova and Isinbayeva dominated the final. Prior to Dragila's 4.78, Feofanova had set world records 4.76 and 4.77 earlier in 2003, both times in Britain. Each woman cleared 4.60, then Isinbayeva faltered at 4.65 whereas Feofanova made it first time. After seeing her compatriot then clear 4.70 easily, Isinbayeva passed her remaining two tries for 4.75. However, Feofanova cleared that height too at the first try and a dispirited Isinbayeva went out.

At the world record height of 4.80, Feofanova failed for the first time. On her second try, she knocked the bar with her thighs on the way up but then happened to steady the crossbar with her chest on her descent. The bar stayed up and she collected a bonus prize of $50,000.

This was the greatest women's pole vault contest yet, with the best three women in the world – Feofanova, Dragila and Isinbayeva – contesting the medals. All three cleared 4.70 the first time, leaving Schwartz in fourth place despite her excellent personal best of 4.60. The bar went up to 4.76 and Feofanova failed once but the other two made it on their first attempts.

At 4.81 Feofanova went out, Isinbayeva made it on her second try and Dragila on her third. This meant that two women would be attempting the absolute world record height of 4.86. The American went first and missed, but Isinbayeva then produced a beautiful vault with plenty to spare. She had earned a $50,000 award, but the competition was not quite over as Dragila passed to 4.91 for her remaining attempts. She failed, as did Isinbayeva at both that height once and 5.00. "I think that five metres can be reached shortly and I hope I will set that record," said the charismatic Russian.

The 2004 and 2005 IAAF Athlete of the Year, Isinbayeva, continued her winning ways with first-time clearances at 4.60, 4.75 and 4.80. The last of those would have been good enough to clear 4.95. She failed attempting a world indoor record of 4.93, though she had the height on her second jump but came down on the bar. "I am giving this win to my parents who are celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary and also to all the people of Volgograd," said Isinbayeva.

Rogowska beat 2003 champion Feofanova 4.75 to 4.70, with her 4.75 effort worth 4.85, while Boslak set a French record with 4.65, for fifth place behind Pyrek.

The fine showing of United States women in Maebashi continued when Williams opened the contest with a personal best of 6.82. She led for one round; in the second Kotova reached 6.86, her best ever indoors or out. In the fourth round, Prandzheva went into third place. The final two rounds saw no changes in position among the top five.

Kotova (6.88) and May (6.87) led by halfway from World outdoor champion Montalvo. Kotova pulled clear with efforts of 6.94 and 6.98 in rounds 4 and 5. Meanwhile, Montalvo improved to 6.85.

In the final round with just the three leaders to go after her, Burrell took her last attempt. She chose the perfect occasion to produce her first-ever 7m leap, clearing 7.03 to move up from fourth to first place. Montalvo followed with 6.88 to push May out of the medals, while Kotova – who had easily the best series – finished with a foul. “My last jump came from deep within me,” said Burrell.

Final (Mar 16)

1, Tatyana Kotova	RUS	6.84

A world-leading effort of 6.84 in the first round was enough for Kotova to regain the title she took in 1999. Maggi set a South American record of 6.70 in the third round which held up for second spot until Kravets's closing leap of 6.72, which was actually 6.88 when measured from take-off. "I have no words to say how wonderful the judging has been in Birmingham," said the champion. "Thank you for such a very, very well organised championships."

One day after setting three world triple jump records, Lebedeva added the long jump title to become the first athlete to win a horizontal jumps double at a world championships. She opened with a good 6.89 and was followed by Klüft on 6.80 by the end of round one. In the second round Lebedeva improved to 6.98 (or 7.03 if one adds the 5cm she took off before the board), while Klüft progressed to 6.92 and defending champion Kotova moved into third place with 6.76. In the fifth round the Swedish heptathlete injured her left hamstring and was stretchered off, so was unable to react when Kotova overtook her with 6.93.

"I didn't expect that the triple jump would have affected me so much, but this morning, my whole body ached," admitted the double World Indoor Champion.

7, Oksana Udmurtova	RUS	6.50
8, Stilianí Pilátou	GRE	6.50

Kotova's first three measured jumps were ahead of anything her opposition had to offer. An opening 7.00 was followed by 6.89 and 6.86 after a pass in round three. The Russian, who had won twice before and taken a medal in four previous editions of the championships, was 20cm clear of outdoor world champion Madison. The battle for third was close, with the statuesque Gomes edging Montaner on the basis of a better second best effort (6.75 to 6.64). Madison, Gomes and Montaner all achieved their best jumps in the final round.

"I prepared specially for these Championships," said the winner. "I was born in the winter and it is winter today."

Straight Final (Mar 9: Non-championship)

1, Inessa Kravets	URS	14.44WR
2, Li Huirong	CHN	13.98
3, Sofiya Bozhanova	BUL	13.62

9, Robyne Johnson	USA	12.83
10, Conchi Paredes	ESP	12.73
11, Babette Fuchs	GER	12.54

Having missed a long jump medal by 3cm, Kravets made amends by bettering the official world record three times. Her series was 14.30, 14.39, 14.44, x, 14.23, and 14.27. World outdoor record holder Li was a distant second.

10, Andrea Avila	ARG	13.35
11, Sylvie Borda	FRA	12.90
12, Flora Hyacinth	ISV	11.40

Kravets repeated her feat of 1991 by winning with a world record. This time she won an official gold medal because the event had become part of the main programme. Kravets was already world outdoor record holder (14.95), but her indoor record from Seville had been broken by Chen (14.46) just before the championships.

The Ukrainian grinned widely when the distance of 14.47 was displayed after her fifth-round jump. Chen finished second.

12, Cynthia Rhodes	USA	12.92
13, Barbara Lah	ITA	12.88

Barcelona's only world record came in an event which had seen world records at the last two championships. Chen took the lead in the first round at 14.45. In the third round, Ren came close with a world junior best of 14.37. Chen responded with a huge leap. After some suspenseful moments her distance was confirmed at 15.03, a new world record by 13 centimetres. Prandzheva, who started poorly, moved into the silver medal position with her final leap.

"Winning here was not enough," said Chen, whose father Yevgeniy had been a 16m triple jumper. "I wanted a very good performance because the best Russian triple jumpers were not here and I wanted to show that I could have won even if they were here."

12, Natalya Kayukova	RUS	13.58

Hansen – who had not been selected for the championships originally in a dispute with her federation – took the lead with 14.70 in round one. Former world record holder Lasovskaya took over with 14.72 in the second before soaring to 15.01 in the third, just two centimetres short of the world record. This proved to be the winning jump, and was backed up with 14.94 in the fifth.

The Briton held on for the silver from Kasparková, who beat Mateescu by one centimetre on her final jump.

13, Maho Hanaoka	JPN	12.93
Ren Ruiping	CHN NM	12.93
Olga Vasdhéki	GRE	DNS

Hansen's very first jump was clearly a long one, and she bounded out of the pit in excitement. The distance was a formidable 15.02. Kaspárková responded with 14.83, an improvement on her own Czech record. Tsiamíta also set Greek record of 14.63. And this was only the first round.

Hansen, her long hair tied into pigtailed, fouled her next three jumps. In the meantime, Kaspárková improved to 14.87 but was overtaken by Bulgaria's Iva Prandzheva (14.94). Hansen finished with 14.86 and 14.67, Kaspárková with 14.80 and 14.46. With her last jump Prandzheva landed clearly near to Hansen's leading mark. She went and stood right in front of the scoreboard, but was disappointed when the figure of 14.92 appeared.

Hansen's win meant that all three British athletes who won silver at the 1997 Championships (her, Colin Jackson and Jamie Baulch) were winners this time in Maebashi.

Lisbon 2001Straight Final (Mar 11)

1, Tereza Marinova	BUL	14.91

6, Cristina Nicolau	ROU	14.05
7, Anja Valant	SLO	13.84
8, Adelina Gavrila	ROU	13.77

The Lisbon women's long jump was decided in the final round, but in the triple jump, the winning leap came in the first round. Olympic Champion Marinova cleared 14.91. The nearest challenger to the Bulgarian proved to be Lebedeva, who reached 14.85 in the fifth. Hurd provided another excellent jumps result for American women. She set an absolute personal best of 14.19 in the fourth to secure the bronze.

Peleshenko won her first major title at the age of 31 – or so we thought until it was confirmed she had failed an out-of-competition doping test at Huddinge (Sweden) on February 20. The gold went instead to two-time Olympic medallist Neimke ahead of Price-Smith, who won her country's first shot medal at this level since 1960.

Kumbernuss's win streak of 53 competitions was unexpectedly ended by Pavlysh. The Ukrainian, notably quick across the circle, put precisely 20m in rounds two and six. Kumbernuss replied with a best of 19.92 in round 5. “Frankly speaking,” said the winner, “I needed the money, that's why I competed this winter.”

Vita Pavlysh UKR DQ (39) (21.43); Irina Korzhanenko RUS DQ (39) (20.56)

At the 1998 European Championships in Budapest, Pavlysh produced the longest women's shot put of the 1990s. In Maebashi she achieved the same feat indoors. Drawn sixth, the Ukrainian opened with 20.72. Her great rival Korzhanenko responded with 20.56, and it looked as if the two of them might have quite a duel. They didn't. Pavlysh's second put was a monster, 21.43. The performance had a negative effect of Korzhanenko, was to produce only one more valid put. Pavlysh, meanwhile, went out to 21.39 in the sixth.

She later declined to comment to the post-event interviewers, but in any case, her glory was short-lived. Both Pavlysh and Korzhanenko failed their doping control tests. They were each banned for two years and so the title went to former champion Krivelyova.

Korolchik had unexpectedly beaten Peleshenko at the 2000 Olympic Games, but in Lisbon the Russian turned the tables as the Belarussian placed only ninth. It was another Belarus woman, Ostapchuk, who led after round 1 with 19.24. By the third, the 37 year-old Peleshenko took control. She put 19.52 and later improved to 19.84.

After collecting the gold, Peleshenko – well-known as an astrologist – noted that March was her lucky month.

Birmingham 2003

Final (Mar 15)

1,	Irina Korzhanenko	RUS	20.55
2,	Nadezhda Ostapchuk	BLR	20.31

6,	Yumileidi Cumbá	CUB	19.19
7,	Yanina Korolchik	BLR	18.94
8,	Assunta Legnante	ITA	18.20

Having placed third in 1997 then lost the 1999 title after failing a doping test, Korzhanenko finally won a gold medal. Wearing a heavy bandage on her right knee, she started with 20.14 then beat the championship record with 20.55 in the second. To that point no other woman had bettered 20m, but Ostapchuk followed with 20.31. Kumbernuss held third place with her 19.86 earlier in that round and that's how it stayed to the finish.

“After what happened in 1999,” admitted Korzhanenko, “it is very important for me to have finished well here today.”

6,	Misleidys González	CUB	18.41
7,	Nadezhda Ostapchuk	BLR	18.33
	Vita Pavlysh	UKR	DQ (39) (20.49)

The World Outdoor Champion Krivelyova won a third world indoor gold with her second round put of 19.90. At the time of the final this performance was placed behind that of 1997 winner Pavlysh, who put 20.39 in the second round and 20.49 in the fourth. At Maebashi 1999, Pavlysh had “won” before being stripped of her title and banned for two years because of a doping infraction. She got caught again in Budapest, so the Ukrainian not only lost a second world indoor title but also earned a life ban.

Final (Mar 12)

1,	Natallia Khoroneko	BLR	19.84

7,	Jillian Camarena	USA	17.60
8,	Cleopatra Borel-Brown	TRI	17.59

The silver medallist in 2001 and 2003, Ostapchuk was hot favourite to win gold this time, having thrown 20.86 in Minsk on February 24. In Moscow she was nowhere near that form, scraping over 18m only on her last throw after four fouls.

Belarus still triumphed though, through Khoronenko, who had led the qualifiers with 19.33, and took the lead with her winning 19.84 in round two of the final. Kleinert, who had led with 19.26, responded immediately with 19.64. All the medal positions were determined at the halfway point, with Ryabinkina's 19.24 (round 3) just edging Lammert 19.21 (round 2) for bronze.

European outdoor Champion Braun produced her best form in years, starting with a world pentathlon best of 8.11 in the 60m hurdles. The German placed second in the next three disciplines, though cut it fine in the long jump, there she managed only 4.24 then a foul, before clicking with 6.40. This meant she could afford to finish last in her 800m heat yet still win by 99 points. Braun's team-mate Steigauf placed second, while Carter improved from 5th to 3rd after her 800m run.

Nathan, familiarly known as DeDee, but entered under her passport name of LaShundra, had a spectacular start. She set a personal best in the hurdles and two more in the high jump, winning both events. In the shot put she had two fouls before putting 15.10, compared with her best ever of 15.16.

After three events, the American's lead was 166 points. A respectable long jump of 6.24 gave her a very comfortable cushion of eight seconds from Wlodarczyk prior to the 800m. She held the Pole by less than one second, while Belova's win moved into second place.

The Belarussian held a lead of 235 before the 800m, which was just as well, because she finished an exhausted sixth in 2:23.20. There was no stopping Carolina Klüft, the reigning World Junior Champion. She won the first two events with indoor personal bests and although beaten by defending champion Sazanovich in the third, the Swede was ecstatic with her 14.48 shot compared with her previous best of 13.78.

After three events, Klüft was 47 points ahead and this was stretched to 89 after another personal best (6.61) in the long jump. The 20 year-old Swede needed to run 2:11.45 in the 800m to break the world record. She tried, leading through 200m in 31.87, 400m in 65.67 and 600m in 1:41.44. Klüft was overtaken by Collonvillé before the finish and fell short of her target, but still won with the second-highest score in history.

The 2002 European indoor silver medallist Gomes became World Indoor Champion without winning any of the five disciplines. Personal bests in the high jump and shot took her into a lead of 56 points, and after a strong long jump of 6.45 she held a four-second advantage over Dobrynska before the 800m. The Ukrainian did manage to cut the former São Tome's athlete lead in half, but the overall order after five events was actually unaffected by the result of the last event.

Saxby set a pace even faster than during her world outdoor best of 12:20.07. Only Krishtop could stay in touch. The Australian passed 1000m in 4:00.24 and 2000m in 8:04.66, but Krishtop proved stronger, and led at the bell.

Disaster struck Saxby on the bell lap when she was disqualified, leaving the the 29 year-old Siberian to win and improve the world record by a margin of 26.08.

Anders suddenly built up a lead of 25m at the start of the second kilometre, but she was gradually reeled in by a cautious Saxby, keen to avoid a repeat of her 1987 fate. On the 11th lap, the Australian caught Anders but stayed behind until the final 600m, where she went ahead and on to a world record.

The unified German team collected their first ever gold medal when Anders swept into the lead, tracked by Saxby, and drew away from her opponents. Anders, who lowered the world record to 11:55.99 the previous month, had an eight metre lead at 1000m (3:55.17). She was further ahead at 2000m (7:53.00) and had a 45m lead from Saxby at the bell.

When she crossed the line the clock read 11:49.61 but this was corrected to 11:50.90, still easily a world record.

Spain took an early lead through Myers and Merino, but were caught by the USSR and Germany on the third leg. Individual fourth placer Yurchenko faced European outdoor Champion Grit Breuer on the anchor, and had no answer when the German surged past in the last 50m.

The teams were closely matched at the first changeover with Britain in a narrow lead. Goncharenko, who won the individual 200m bronze, then made a huge difference with her 51.28 split on the second leg. That put Russia out of range of even the United States, for whom Missian Clark anchored with the fastest stage of the race, 50.25. The Russian quartette earned themselves a total of $110,000 for winning and breaking the world record which had been set at the 1991 championships by Germany. That team included Grit Breuer, and she took another medal for her country by pipping the Czechs for the bronze.

For the second successive World Indoor Championships, Russia lowered the world record. Once again the key to the win and the record was the running of Goncharenko. The Maebashi 200m silver medallist was already in a comfortable lead when she received the baton after Chebykina's 51.68 opener. Goncharenko flew round the double-lap in 50.30, much the fastest split of the race. At halfway the Russians had a 15m lead, which Kotlyarova increased with her 50.77 on lap three. Behind her, the USA and Australia were having a see-saw battle for second place. On the first lap of the third leg, Urbansky brought Germany into medal contention, but she faded on the second lap and left Breuer, for once, with little chance to improve her team's fortune.

At the last changeover it was Russia from Australia and the United States, who were without the injured Jearl Miles Clark. One felt that their anchorwoman Porter might be at the mercy of Breuer, but in fact she pressurised the reigning World outdoor Champion Freeman, "out-splitting" her 51.26 to 51.77. Nazarova anchored the Russians to victory, meaning that Chebykina and Goncharenko collected their third consecutive world indoor relay gold.

After the race, Australia protested over Russia's use of Nazarova, who had failed to finish her semi-final the previous day, apparently injured. The appeal was turned down, and the same four Russians went on to win the world outdoor title in Seville five months later.

Hennagan (51.93) put the United States into a big lead, but then Russia took over in front thanks to Zykina (52.04), with 200m champion Campbell close behind for Jamaica. On the third stage, Scott raced to the front on her first circuit. With individual champion Richards to follow, Jamaica looked to be in a strong position, but Scott faded to third place before the changeover where Russia led again.

Kotlyarova (50.78) was therefore able to make some amends for her individual defeat by Richards earlier in the day. The Jamaican moved up from third to second with her split of 50.91 and earned a record-equalling sixth world indoor medal.

The Russians were such easy winners that European outdoor Champion Zykina and Birmingham winner Nazarova could afford to slacken off on legs three and four. Far behind there was a keen battle for places 2-4. At the final exchanges, Russia were some 10m up on the USA with Jamaica and Britain a further 10m back. There was no catching Nazarova, but the experienced Jamaican Sandie Richards brought her team through for the silvers. She had just missed the individual final in Birmingham but this meant she was fresh for the relay and it showed with a 51.14 split, the fastest of the race. Richards therefore increased her overall world indoor medal haul to seven, more than any other athlete in the history of these championships.

There was no doubt that Russia would win, especially after Kotlyarova ran the amazing split of 49.91 in the heats. In the final Krasnomovets sped away in 51.37 followed by Kotlyarova 50.12. Surprisingly, Levina was chosen to run the third leg and at 52.50 was rather slower than Zykina's 51.88 in the heats. Russia's victory was certain once the final change was complete, but could individual winner Nazarova run quickly enough to break the world record after Levina's moderate run? Yes, because she supplanted Kotlyarova as the fastest ever indoor relay runner with 49.89.

Sub-51 anchor legs by Svetlana Usovich and Tirlea secured the other medals for Belarus and Romania at the expense of Poland.

Moscow 2006

Final (Mar 12)

1,	Russia	3:24.91
2,	United States	3:28.63
3,	Belarus	3:28.65
4,	Poland	3:28.95
5,	Jamaica	3:29.54
6,	Great Britain & NI	3:29.70

Russia ran 3:25.91, the fourth-fastest ever, in the heats. In that race Levina split 51.03 and that possibly earned her place as lead-off woman in the final. In that race, she gave her team a six-metre advantage over Poland. Nazarova extended the lead by a couple of metres, before 400m winner Krasnomovets broke the race open with a 50.69 leg to lead by almost 30m. Antyukh anchored the team home with 51.38 to a 3:24.91 clocking – again the fourth fastest time ever. The USA just held off Belarus for second place, but the race was dominated by Russia – on each leg the Russian squad was fastest.

This was Natalya Nazarova's sixth world indoor gold. Only Maria Mutola – with seven, all at 800m – has more.

WORLD & CONTINENTAL INDOOR RECORDS

(As at January 13, 2008)

The best indoor performances on record – as agreed by the world's leading statisticians - were accepted as the inaugural IAAF World Indoor Records from January 1, 1987. Official indoor records are ratified by IAAF, EAA, and certain national federations. The “records” of other continental federations (and also World junior bests) should be regarded as the best statistically valid performances. Note that marks set on oversized tracks (OT) or by relay teams with mixed nationalities ($) are not accepted as records.

ABBREVIATIONS & KEY (See also page 7)

IAAF = IAAF World Indoor Record

W = World Best (unratified), AFR = Africa, ASI = Asia, C = Commonwealth; CAC = Central America & Caribbean, EUR = Europe, NAM = North America, OCE = Oceania, SAM = South America, WJ = World Junior; * = mark not yet ratified; # = mark not ratified/confirmed

Where relevant, the pace is given for world record performances. Where known, the time given is that of the runner who set the record, rather than the pacemaker

EVOLUTION OF WORLD INDOOR RECORDS

These lists show the evolution of World Indoor Best performances and – in bold – recognised IAAF World Records. The best indoor performances on record – as agreed by the world's leading statisticians – were accepted as the inaugural IAAF World Indoor Records from January 1, 1987. Marks superior to IAAF world records but unratified are listed separately. Note that hand times are shown only if better than the best automatic timing on record. Any updates since the 2006 edition are denoted by a vertical bar (“|”) in the right margin. All records are as at January 13, 2008

EVOLUTION OF WORLD INDOOR RECORDS

These lists show the evolution of World Indoor Best performances and – in bold – recognised IAAF World Records. The best indoor performances on record – as agreed by the world's leading statisticians – were accepted as the inaugural IAAF World Indoor Records from January 1, 1987. Marks superior to IAAF world records but unrated are listed separately. Note that hand times are shown only if better than the best automatic timing on record. Updates since the 2006 edition are denoted by a vertical bar (“|”) in the right margin. All records are as at January 13, 2008
